WILLIAM V. BIDWILL

Chairman/President

Mr. Bidwill is entering his 43rd year with the Football Cardinals. He began working for the team as a child learning every aspect of the organization and is now serving as the chairman and president of the company in a full-time capacity.

The 54-year-old native of Chicago takes great pride in his involvement in the oldest continuous professional football franchise in the nation which dates back to 1898. In 1920, the team became one of two charter members of the National Football League along with the Chicago Bears.

The Bidwill family purchased the club in 1932 with Charles Bidwill, Bill's father and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, serving as president until his death in 1947. Over the next 15 years, Mrs. Violet Bidwill assumed control, overseeing the team's move to St. Louis in 1960. In 1962, Bill along with his brother, Charles Bidwill, Jr., assumed control of the team until Bill became the club's sole owner in 1972.

Since moving to St. Louis 27 years ago from Chicago, the Big Red have enjoyed two divisional championships in 1974 and 1975 and a return to the playoffs in 1982.

Mr. Bidwill is involved in all areas of the Football Cardinal organization, and remains continuously involved in the support of various civic and charitable organizations in the St. Louis area.

A graduate of Georgetown University and a Navy veteran, Bill and his wife Nancy have four sons, William, Jr., Michael, Patrick, and Timothy, and a daughter, Nicole.

LARRY WILSON

Director of Personnel

Larry Wilson, a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Cardinals' all-time interception leader, enters his 11th season as Director of Pro Personnel.

The 49-year-old Wilson holds the distinction of working for the Cardinals in each season since the club arrived in St. Louis in 1960. His 28-year NFL career includes 13 seasons (1960-72) as a standout defensive back, four years (1973-76) as the organization's Director of Pro Scouting, and now 11 years (1977-86) as Director of Pro Personnel.

As a player, Wilson reached near-legendary status as a six-time All-Pro and eight-time Pro Bowl performer at free safety. He still owns the club record for most career interceptions with 52. In 1966, he enjoyed one of his finest seasons with a NFL-leading 10 interceptions while tying a league record by intercepting a pass in seven consecutive games.

One of only four players to have their Cardinals' jersey retired, Wilson was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in January, 1978.

Ironically, Wilson was drafted in the seventh round as a running back from the University of Utah in 1960. However, due to injuries on the team, he was switched to cornerback and then finally to free safety. Along with former coach Chuck Drulis, he innovated one of today's most potent defensive plays — the safety blitz.

Born in Rigby, Idaho, Wilson and his wife, Nancy, make Chesterfield, Mo. their home. Nancy is a sports reporter with KMOX Radio in St. Louis.

GENE STALLINGS

Head Coach

Gene Stallings, the man entrusted with rebuilding the Cardinals into an NFL playoff contender in 1987, enters his second season as the club's head coach.

A disciple of two of the greatest football coaches of all-time, Stallings previously served 12 years (1953-64) as a player or coach under Paul "Bear" Bryant at Texas A&M and Alabama, and another 14 seasons (1972-85) as a Dallas Cowboys assistant under Tom Landry.

While last year's injury-riddled Cardinals were saddled with a 4-11-1 record, the club made significant strides in Stallings' first season at the helm. Defensively, St. Louis ranked first against the pass (164.8 yards per game) and fourth overall (304.0) among NFL teams in 1986. Additionally, the Cardinals beat playoff-bound Kansas City (23-14) and lost close encounters to the Super Bowl champion New York Giants (13-6), NFC runner-up Washington (20-17 and 28-21) and the playoff wildcard Los Angeles Rams (13-10).

During his Dallas tenure, Stallings was a driving force behind the Cowboys' winning tradition. He was associated with 13 playoff clubs there, including Cowboys' squads that won seven divisional flags (1973-76-77-78-79-81-85), three conference championships (1975-77-78) and one Super Bowl title (1977). Serving as defensive backfield coach, Stallings was a member of Landry's staff in Super Bowls X, XII and XIII.

The Paris, Texas native was praised for his ability to develop Cowboy free agents and low-round draft choices into top-flight NFL players. Most notably, Stallings honed the skills of four Cowboys' All-Pros — Cliff Harris, Charlie Waters, Everson Walls and Michael Downs. Harris, Walls and Downs were free agents, while Waters, a third-round draft choice, was a converted college quarterback and receiver.

"We used to get nose-to-nose arguing about different things," said Harris of his former coach. "But I always respected Gene. He is who he is. He's no fence-straddler. He says what he thinks."

The 52-year-old Stallings joined the Cowboys in 1972 following seven years (1965-72) as head coach of his alma mater, Texas A&M. He directed the Aggies to a 27-45-1 record during that tumultuous Vietnam War period, with his crowning moment a 20-16 victory over Bryant's Alabama club in the 1968 Cotton Bowl. During that 1967 regular season, Stallings directed A&M to seven straight victories to overcome a 0-4 start and win the Southwest Conference championship.

As a player, Stallings was an All-Southwest Conference receiver at Texas A&M under coach Bryant and a tri-captain on the Aggies' undefeated 1956 team. He was one of the "Junction Boys," who survived Bryant's storied training camp in 1954. That Aggie squad lived in quonset huts during pre-season camp, practicing day and night in the sweltering heat of Junction, Texas.

"We weren't there weeks, it was just days," recalled Stallings with a smile. "Ten days. Been any longer and there wouldn't have been anybody left. We went out there in two buses and came back in one."

In 1960, Stallings authored "Bear Bryant on Winning Football," a technical football book about Bryant's coaching philosophies. And more recently, he served as a technical consultant to director Larry Spangler in the movie, "Bear," the life story of coach Bryant starring screen star Gary Busey. Stallings was particularly instrumental in the Junction training camp scenes of the movie.

Earning a bachelor's degree in physical education at Texas A&M in 1957, the Cardinal mentor began his coaching career as an Aggie student-assistant. He served one year there before moving with Bryant to Alabama as a full-time assistant in 1958. He remained in Tuscaloosa, Ala. until returning to A&M as a 29-year-old head coach in 1965.

His years under Bryant's tutelage have left a lasting impression on Stallings, as reflected by this comment at his introductory news conference with the St. Louis media in February, 1985:

"I'm sorry Coach Bryant couldn't be here. I know somewhere he's smiling."

A man with deep Texas roots, Stallings was honored by his hometown of Paris (26,000 population) in his very first game as a NFL head coach. Stallings and New England Patriots' head coach Raymond Berry — both products of Paris — were presented achievement plaques from city officials in pre-game ceremonies at last year's Hall of Fame game in Canton, Ohio. Billboards in Paris proclaimed the Cardinals-Patriots game as "The Great Paris Shootout."

Both Stallings (1950-52) and Berry (1948-49) played varsity football at Paris High School, where Berry's father, Raymond Sr., was the legendary head coach. Interestingly, current Green Bay Packers' head coach Forrest Gregg also grew up 35 miles from Paris in Sulphur Springs, Texas.

Stallings, who owns a 600-acre ranch called "Hiike Away" just north of the Paris city limits, has been heavily involved in community and charity work for several years.

In St. Louis, he serves as co-chairman of Multiple Sclerosis and is a Special Olympics and Red Cross volunteer. He spends countless hours visiting local hospitals and institutions for mentally-retarded children, and has been a fund-raiser for disadvantaged children's homes. Additionally, Stallings makes numerous speaking appearances at PTA and church groups, Boys Clubs, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and high school banquets.

Stallings was elected to the Texas A&M Hall of Fame in 1982, and has also received the 1982 National Boys Club's Alumni of the Year Award and 1983 Dallas Father of the Year Award.

He currently serves on the board of directors of First National Bank in Paris, and Landmark Bank in St. Louis.

Born March 2, 1935, Gene and his wife, Ruth Ann, have one son, John Mark (25), and four daughters — Anna Lee (29), Laurie (28), Jacklyn (23) and Martha Kate (17). They own a home in St. Louis.

JIM SHOFNER

Offensive Coordinator

Jim Shofner, one of professional football's most experienced and versatile coaches, enters his second autumn as the Cardinals' offensive coordinator.

Shofner brings 17 years of National Football League coaching experience to St. Louis, including stops in San Francisco (1967-74 and 1977), Cleveland (1978-80), Houston (1981-82) and Dallas (1983-85).

A native of Grapevine, Texas, Shofner played both football and baseball at Texas Christian University. He was an All-Southwest Conference running back and defensive back for TCU, playing in the 1957 East-West Shrine Game and College All-Star Game (vs. the Detroit Lions).

Following his graduation, Shofner declined an offer to play professional baseball with the Detroit Tigers, instead logging six years as a defensive back with the Cleveland Browns from 1958-63. The next season, he began his coaching career as an assistant at TCU. After three college seasons, he joined the pro ranks with the 49ers in 1967.

Shofner spent seven seasons in San Francisco, working in various capacities with defensive backs, quarterbacks and receivers. He returned to his alma mater, TCU, in 1974 as head coach. Three years later, Shofner had a brief one-season reunion with the 49ers as defensive backs coach. Then in 1978, he moved to Cleveland, where he handled the quarterbacks coaching duties for the Browns until 1980. He was named offensive coordinator of the Houston Oilers the following season and worked two years with head coach Ed Biles before joining the Cowboys in 1983 as quarterbacks coach.

Born Dec. 18, 1935, Shofner and his wife, Nancy, have two children — Mike (24) and Elizabeth (22). They reside in Chesterfield, Mo.

MARV BRADEN

Special Teams

Marv Braden, an 11-year veteran of NFL coaching, begins his second season as the Cardinals' special teams coach.

Braden arrived in St. Louis after a five-year tenure with the San Diego Chargers, where he served as special offensive assistant and special teams coordinator. Previously, Braden logged four seasons as the Denver Broncos' special teams coach from 1977-80.

A 1960 graduate of Southwest Missouri State, Braden launched his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Missouri (1961-62). After three years as defensive coordinator at Parsons College (Iowa), he received his first head coaching appointment at Northeast Missouri State in 1967. During two seasons at Northeast Missouri State, Braden etched a 13-7-1 record.

His next stop was California Western (now U.S. International), where he registered a 26-12-1 mark as head coach from 1969-72. Braden moved to Iowa State in 1973 as defensive coordinator, served as offensive coordinator at SMU from 1974-75, and then joined Michigan State in the same capacity in 1976. The following year, he entered the professional ranks in Denver.

Among his coaching highlights have been appearances in Super Bowl XII, the 1980 and 1983 Senior Bowls, 1961 Gator Bowl, 1965 Pecan Bowl and 1972 Mercy Bowl. He has been very active with numerous clinics and speaking engagements, and has had several pieces of his writing published in motivational and instructional publications. Braden also is involved with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Born Jan. 25, 1938 in Kansas City, Mo., Braden and his wife reside in Chesterfield, Mo. They have one daughter, Janice (26).

DID YOU KNOW . . .

The Cardinals have three assistants who formerly coached or played at nearby University of Missouri.

Special teams coach Marv Braden joined the Mizzou staff in 1960 and began a three-year stint as a defensive assistant. In 1962, Braden and running backs coach Hank Kuhlmann were assistants on Dan Devine's staff. And Cardinals' defensive line coach Jim Johnson was a quarterback on that team.

Additionally, Kuhlmann played at Missouri from 1956-58.

LeBARON CARUTHERS

Strength and Conditioning

Strength Coaches Association and National Association of Speed and Explosion. Earlier this year he participated in a two-week tour of the U.S.S.R. in the East German and Soviet Science of Strength and Conditioning Course. He becomes only the second NFL coach (Johnny Parker — N.Y. Giants) to study in the Soviet Union and apply those principles to professional football.

Born April 20, 1954, LeBaron and his wife, Kim, reside in Clayton, Mo. and are expecting their first child in July.

LeBaron Caruthers enters his second season with the Big Red as strength and conditioning coach.

Caruthers, a native of Nashville, Tenn., previously served as strength and conditioning coach with the New England Patriots (1982-84) and Southern Methodist (1981). He took a one-year sabbatical in 1985, when he attended the University of Tampa to pursue a master's degree in physical education.

The 33-year-old Caruthers played offensive tackle at East Carolina in 1972 before transferring to North Carolina State, where he became a two-time track and field All-American in the shot put.

Following graduation, he was named assistant track coach at Auburn. Caruthers served in that capacity for two seasons (1978-79), along with directing the weightlifting programs of both the men's and women's track teams there.

While at SMU, Caruthers was the Texas superheavy-weight division Olympic lifting champion in 1980 and 1981. He is currently a member of the National

TOM BRESNAHAN

Offensive Line

Tom Bresnahan, former offensive line coach with the New York Giants and Kansas City Chiefs, assumed a similar position with the Cardinals last year.

Bresnahan, 52, brings nearly three decades of coaching experience on the pro, college and high school levels to the St. Louis staff. The Springfield, Mass. native held assistant posts with the Chiefs (1981-82) and Giants (1983-84) prior to entering the restaurant business in Moultonboro, N.H. in 1985.

While in Kansas City, Bresnahan contributed to the Chiefs' first winning season (9-7) in eight years. That 1981 club ranked second in rushing among NFL teams. Bresnahan's coaching abilities were also evident in New York, where the Giants advanced to the NFC Championship Game in 1984.

Prior to his involvement in the pro ranks, Bresnahan served as offensive line coach at Navy (1973-80) and Columbia (1968-73), and both offensive and defensive line coach at Williams College (1963-68). During his stint at Navy, the Midshipmen appeared in the 1978 Holiday Bowl and 1980 Garden State Bowl, and posted a cumulative record of 24-11 in his final three seasons.

He also stamped his mark at Columbia, where the Lions' 6-2-1 record in 1971 was the best in 10 years and has not been equaled since.

Bresnahan played collegiate football at Holy Cross, receiving cum laude honors in economics and philosophy with a bachelor's degree in 1956. He earned a master's in education from Springfield (Mass.) College in 1960.

His coaching career began as line coach at Cathedral High School (Springfield, Mass.) in 1956, followed by line coaching duties for the Fort Dix (N.J.) Interservice Team in 1957-59 and Holyoke (Mass.) High School in 1959-61. He also served as head coach at Drury High School in North Adams, Mass. from 1961-63.

Born Jan. 21, 1935, Bresnahan and his wife, Elaine, live in Manchester, Mo. They have three sons — Thomas (29), Charles (27) and Daniel (23) — and a daughter, Denise (18).

JIM JOHNSON

Defensive Line

Jim Johnson, former defensive coordinator and secondary coach with the USFL's Jacksonville Bulls and Oklahoma Outlaws, joined Stallings' staff last season as defensive line coach.

Prior to his one-year stints at Jacksonville (1985) and Oklahoma (1984), Johnson served seven years on the Notre Dame coaching staff.

He joined the Fighting Irish as secondary coach in 1977 when the school claimed the National Championship.

In 1981 under new head coach Gerry Faust, Johnson was promoted to defensive coordinator, and then to assistant head coach in 1983. In 1980, his defenders ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense, while his 1982 and 1983 clubs finished 10th and 14th, respectively, in NCAA total defense.

An All-Big Eight quarterback and team most valuable player at Missouri in 1962, Johnson played in three post-season games — the 1960 Orange Bowl, and 1962 Bluebonnet Bowl and East-West Shrine Game.

He was named the Bluebonnet Bowl's MVP.

Following his college days, Johnson played two seasons with the Buffalo Bills in 1963-64. He launched his coaching career at Joplin (Mo.) High School in 1965. After two seasons at Joplin, Johnson was named head coach at Missouri Southern College in 1967. He later served four-year college tenures at Drake (1969-72) and Indiana (1973-76) as defensive coordinator and linebacker coach.

In all, Johnson coached in six bowl games — 1971 Pecan, 1972 Pioneer, 1977 and 1978 Cotton, 1980 Sugar and 1982 Liberty.

Born May 26, 1941 in Maywood, Ill., Johnson earned a bachelor's degree in education and a master's in physical education at Missouri. He and his wife, Vicky, live in St. Louis. They have two children, Scott (22) and Michelle (18).

HANK KUHLMANN

Running Backs

Then in 1975, he followed Packers' head coach Dan Devine to Notre Dame, assuming running backs and special teams duties for the Fighting Irish. Kuhlmann's stay in South Bend was highlighted by a national championship and Cotton Bowl title in 1977, and an appearance in the 1976 Gator Bowl.

After three seasons at Notre Dame, he returned to the NFL as running backs and special teams coach for the Chicago Bears. With Kuhlmann honing the exceptional skills of Walter Payton, the Bears gained a wild-card playoff berth in 1979.

In 1983, he became assistant head coach with Birmingham, coordinating the Stallions' offense and serving as running backs and special teams coach. Under his tutelage, Birmingham led the USFL in rushing in both 1983 and 1984. In addition, the Stallions won the 1984 Southern Division championship and 1985 Eastern Conference crown.

Born Oct. 6, 1937, Hank and his wife, Donna, have two children, Jeff (17) and Tracey (10). They live in Manchester, Mo.

Hank Kuhlmann, assistant head coach and offensive coordinator with the USFL's Birmingham Stallions from 1983-85, begins his second campaign as the Cardinals' running backs coach.

The 49-year-old Kuhlmann is certainly no stranger to St. Louis or the state of Missouri. A native of Webster Groves, Mo., he received his bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from the University of Missouri before playing four years as a catcher in the St. Louis Baseball Cardinals organization from 1959-62.

Following his stint in baseball, Kuhlmann returned to his alma mater to serve for three years (1963-65) as Missouri's freshman football coach. In 1966, he was promoted to running backs coach, contributing to Tigers' teams that appeared in the 1968 Gator Bowl and 1969 Orange Bowl.

Kuhlmann joined the professional ranks as Green Bay's special teams coach in 1972, the season the Packers won the NFC Central Division championship.

LEON McLAUGHLIN

Special Asst/Quality Control

at Detroit (1973-74), Green Bay (1975-76) and New England (1977) before arriving in St. Louis.

As a player, McLaughlin performed five seasons at center for the Rams (1951-55), and starred at UCLA as both a linebacker and center from 1946-49.

Born May 30, 1925, McLaughlin and his wife, Sue, live in Manchester, Mo. They have two daughters and five sons.

Leon McLaughlin, a 25-year coaching veteran of professional and college football, serves coach Stallings as the Cardinals' special assistant/quality control coach.

McLaughlin, who originally joined the Big Red in 1978, handled a similar assignment for former Cardinal head coaches Bud Wilkinson and Jim Hanifan. His duties include assessing the opponents' tendencies and personnel as well as breaking down game video and scouting the team's upcoming opponent.

A native of San Diego, Calif., McLaughlin began his collegiate coaching career at Washington State in 1956. He coached high school football in 1957 and 1958 before moving to Stanford where he coached from 1959-65.

McLaughlin entered the pro arena with the Pittsburgh Steelers, where he coached from 1966-68. In 1969, he accepted the head coaching job at San Fernando State (now Cal State Northridge), where he remained for three years. He then joined the Los Angeles Rams in 1972 as an assistant coach, followed by brief stints

MAL MOORE

Receivers

Mal Moore, a highly-successful college coach at Alabama and Notre Dame, enters his second professional season as receivers coach for the Cardinals.

Moore, 47, arrived in St. Louis after serving as Notre Dame's assistant head coach to Gerry Faust from 1984-85 and offensive backfield coach from 1983-85.

Previously, he was an assistant on Paul "Bear" Bryant's staff at Alabama from 1964-82, first as a graduate assistant (1964), then as defensive backfield coach (1965-70), quarterbacks coach (1971-82), and offensive coordinator (1975-82). During his long association with the Crimson Tide, the team won 11 Southwestern Conference titles and five National Championships.

Moore, who holds the distinction of coaching in a post-season bowl game for 21 consecutive seasons (19 at Alabama, two at Notre Dame), tutored several future professionals during his college career. Some include tight end Ozzie Newsome, center Dwight Stephenson and quarterback Richard Todd of Alabama, and tailback Allen Pinkett of Notre Dame.

A quarterback and defensive back who played for Stallings at Alabama from 1958-62, Moore earned a B.S. in sociology and M.A. in secondary education in Tuscaloosa. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Montana State in 1963.

JOE PASCALE

Linebackers

Joe Pascale, one of professional football's bright young defensive minds, begins his second season as the Cardinals' linebackers coach.

A veteran of 20 years of coaching, Pascale joined Stallings' staff after serving as defensive backs coach for the USFL's New Jersey Generals from 1984-85. Prior to his USFL tenure, Pascale held assistant positions in the Canadian Football League.

He served two seasons with the Ottawa Rough Riders, handling the defensive line in 1982, and quarterbacks and receivers in 1983. Previously, he was employed by the Montreal Alouettes, working as defensive line coach and player personnel director in 1980, and then promoted to defensive coordinator in 1981 when he also assumed the defensive line and special teams duties.

The 41-year-old Pascale entered the coaching field in 1967 as a graduate assistant at the University of Connecticut, where he starred as an All-East linebacker as a senior. After two seasons as an assistant coach for UConn's freshmen team, Pascale moved to the University of Rhode Island in 1970. He coached four years at Rhode Island, overseeing the linebackers for one season, and serving as defensive coordinator and secondary coach from 1971-73.

Pascale accepted a job at Idaho State with similar coordinator responsibilities in 1974, and was then appointed the Bengals' head coach in 1976. The following year, he moved to Princeton, spending one season as linebacker coach and two campaigns as defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

In his 20 years of coaching, Pascale has spent 18 as a defensive coach. During his tenure with the Generals, the team advanced to the USFL playoffs both years with records of 11-7 in 1985 and 14-4 in 1984. In fact, Pascale came to the Cardinals having been associated with playoff teams in each of his previous six seasons in professional football.

A native of New York City, he earned bachelor's and master's degrees in education at Connecticut, and completed an advanced graduate curriculum in education administration at UConn as well.

Born April 17, 1946, Pascale and his wife, Lucille, have a 10-year-old son, Joseph. They own a home in St. Louis.

MEL RENFRO

Defensive Backs

Championship clubs in 1970 and 1977.

Still the Cowboys' career leader in interceptions (52) and kickoff return yardage (2,246), Renfro was inducted into Dallas' Ring of Honor at Texas Stadium in 1981. Only one of six Cowboys to gain such distinction, Renfro's name and years of service (1964-77) are displayed on a stadium wall with teammates Bob Lilly, Don Meredith, Don Perkins, Chuck Howley and Roger Staubach.

Renfro, who grew up in Portland, Ore., holds kickoff return yardage and average records for a career (2,246, 26.4), season (1,017, 30.0) and game (168, 42.0) with the Cowboys. During his 14-year NFL tour, Renfro played on Dallas teams that won 70.2 percent of its games (136-57-3). He played under Gene Stallings, who served as the Cowboys' secondary coach. Ironically, Renfro still holds the Cardinal opponent record for longest interception return, a 90-yard TD Oct. 4, 1965.

Following his 1977 retirement as a player, Renfro remained with the Cowboys as a scout for one season. Born in Houston, Texas on Dec. 30, 1941, he has three sons and one daughter. He lives in St. Louis.

Mel Renfro, former All-Pro defensive back with the Dallas Cowboys, enters his second season as the Cardinals' defensive secondary coach.

Renfro, a 14-year star with the Cowboys, previously coached the defensive secondary under John Hadl with the USFL's Los Angeles Express in 1984. That Express team won the Pacific Division with a 10-8 record and appeared in the Western Conference Championship Game.

Prior to his one-year stint in the USFL, Renfro was an account manager for Miller Beer in Dallas, Texas.

After starring in football and track at the University of Oregon, Renfro joined the Cowboys in 1964. An All-America running back in college, he was switched to defense by head coach Tom Landry and became All-Pro at both safety and cornerback. He was selected to the Pro Bowl 10 straight seasons (1964-73) and was voted an All-Pro five times (1965-67-68-69-71-73). He played in 21 playoff games for the Cowboys, including four Super Bowls, and played on World

DEFENSIVE BACK EXPERTISE

The Cardinals' coaching and front office staff is not lacking expertise in the defensive secondary. First, head coach Gene Stallings spent 14 seasons as Tom Landry's defensive backfield coach at Dallas (1972-85). And pro personnel director Larry Wilson, a Pro Football Hall of Famer and six-time All-Pro, remains the Cards' career interception leader with 52 thefts from 1960-72. And finally, current defensive back coach Mel Renfro is a five-time Pro Bowl DB who matches Wilson's 52 interceptions as the Dallas Cowboys' all-time leader (1964-77), while offensive coordinator Jim Shofner once intercepted passes in six straight games with the Cleveland Browns in 1960.

GEORGE BOONE

Director of Player Personnel

George Boone, who enters his 19th campaign with the Football Cardinals, has served as director of player personnel since 1973. He oversees the Big Red's scouting and drafting operations, directs six full-time scouts, and manages the club's involvement with the United Scouting Combine — a personnel organization utilized by most NFL teams in pooling scouting reports.

Before joining the Cardinals, Boone held a scouting position with Central-Eastern Professional Organization (CEPO), a scouting combine also used by NFL teams. He worked three years for CEPO before accepting the assistant player personnel director post with St. Louis in 1968.

A native of Louisville, Ky., the 47-year-old Boone is an alumnus of the University of Kentucky, where he was a three-year starter at offensive and defensive tackle from 1957-59. He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in education at Kentucky, where he also served as an assistant football coach for six years (1960-65).

He and his wife, Dedee, live in Kirkwood, Mo. They have four daughters and a son.

BO BOLINGER

Scout

Bo Bolinger begins his 16th year as a Cardinals' scout, with his primary collegiate scouting responsibility in the far west region of the United States.

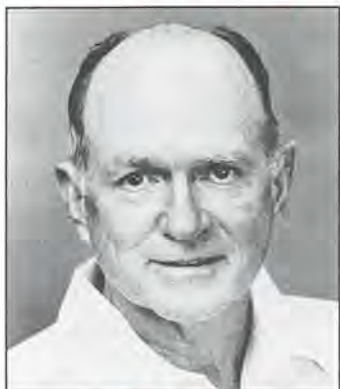

Prior to accepting a position with the Big Red in 1971, Bolinger coached on the college level for 11 years and spent two seasons as offensive line coach with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Oklahoma in 1955 following his playing days with the Sooners. After a stop on the high school level, Bolinger coached the offensive and defensive lines at University of Denver from 1958-60. He accepted the defensive coordinator post at Tulsa University the following season, handling that role for two years. In 1963, he moved to New Mexico as offensive and defensive coordinator. After five years with the Lobos, Bolinger spent one season (1968) as defensive coordinator at Utah State before joining the Canadian Football League.

While a player at Oklahoma, Bolinger earned All-America recognition in 1955, and was twice named an all-conference guard.

The 53-year-old Bolinger and his wife, Barbara, live in Tempe, Ariz.

HARRY GILMER

Scout

Harry Gilmer, a veteran of 25 years of NFL coaching, begins his fifth season as a Cardinals' personnel scout.

Gilmer launched his coaching and scouting career with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1957. Four years later, he joined the Minnesota Vikings in a similar capacity. Then in 1965, he was named head coach of the Detroit Lions, a position he held for two seasons. He arrived in St. Louis in 1967 for the first of two tenures as the Cardinals' quarterbacks coach. In 1970, he tutored the QBs in Atlanta, only to return to St. Louis in 1975 for a seven-year stint as quarterbacks coach.

An All-America quarterback at the University of Alabama, Gilmer was the first player chosen in the 1948 NFL Draft by Washington. He earned All-Pro honors in 1950 and 1952 before retiring as a player after the 1956 season.

Gilmer and his wife, Katherine, reside in O'Fallon, Mo. They have a son, three daughters and four grandchildren.

MATT LAIR

Scout

Working as a scout covering the near east portion of the United States, Matt Lair is entering his 14th year with the Cardinals' organization. Prior to coming to St. Louis in 1974, Lair logged six years with the Central-Eastern Professional Scouting Organization, a national scouting combine.

Playing linebacker and guard in college, Lair was an undergraduate at the University of Kentucky from 1941-1942 and again in 1946-47. Following college, he spent 15 years as an assistant coach at Kentucky, Texas A&M and Texas Tech.

Born in Paris, Ky., the 61-year-old Lair and his wife, Helen, live in Danville, Ky.

ACE PARKER

Scout

In 1940, he was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player, but service duty interrupted his football career the following year. After returning to play the 1945 and 1946 NFL campaigns, he retired with career totals of 498 rushing yards and 14 touchdowns on 148 attempts, and 335 completions in 718 passing attempts for 4,701 yards and 30 TDs.

Remarkably, Parker is a member of five Halls of Fame, including Duke, North Carolina and Virginia universities, plus the NCAA and Pro Football halls.

Parker and his wife, Thelma, live in his hometown, Portsmouth, Va.

RED PHILLIPS

Scout

Clarence "Ace" Parker begins his 11th year with the Football Cardinals' scouting department, covering the far east section of the U.S.

Parker, who has the distinction of playing in both the NFL and Major League Baseball, was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1972. He has been called one of the last great "triple-threat" stars in professional football, having excelled as an all-purpose offensive and defensive back for the Brooklyn Dodgers (1937-41), Boston Yanks, (1945) and the New York Yankees (1946 in All-American Football Conference).

As a member of the Brooklyn Dodgers, Parker played in the first televised professional football game ever on Oct. 22, 1939 against Philadelphia. He completed a touchdown pass in the 23-14 Dodgers' victory.

An All-America tailback at Duke in 1936, Parker was Brooklyn's first draft choice the following year. However, he did not report to the Dodgers until midway through the football season because of a contractual commitment with baseball's Philadelphia Athletics. After earning 1938 All-NFL honors in his first full season, he decided to reject a baseball contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Aubrey "Red" Phillips, who served 19 years in the San Diego Chargers' scouting and personnel departments, begins his second season as a full-time scout with the Football Cardinals.

Phillips, 57, spent 1985 with the National Football Scouting, Inc., which scouts the top 100 college players in the United States. Previously, he worked nearly two decades with the Chargers, rising from a scout in 1967 to director of player personnel in 1975. He became chief scout for the Chargers in 1979, a position he held for five years.

A former center and linebacker at Texas Tech, Phillips played professionally for Saskatchewan of the Canadian Football League. He also coached at Texas Tech, Southwestern Louisiana and Northwestern Louisiana.

Born in Abbott, Texas, Phillips and his wife, Kay, have three sons and two daughters.

STAN WEST

Scout

Stan West, who became the first full-time scout in Cardinals' history in 1965, launches his 22nd season with the organization. As the senior member of the scouting department, he is assigned to the near west region of the country.

Prior to coming to St. Louis, West served as an assistant coach for the Minnesota Vikings from 1961-63.

An All-American lineman at the University of Oklahoma in 1949, he was the Los Angeles Rams' first-round draft pick the following year. He was named to the Pro Bowl in only his second season as a linebacker in 1951, the year the Rams defeated Cleveland for the NFL Championship. West played for Los Angeles until 1955, when he joined the New York Giants. The following two seasons he played for the Chicago Cardinals.

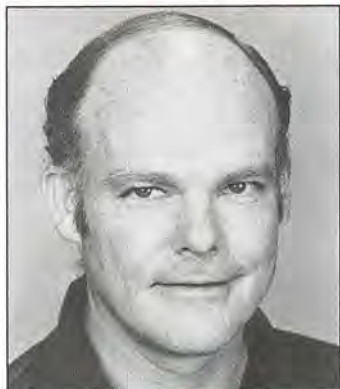

A Norman, Okla. resident, West and his wife, Mary Frances, have two sons.

JOHN OMOHUNDRO

Head Trainer

John Omohundro begins his 21st season with the Cardinals and 17th as head trainer for the club.

After earning his bachelor's degree from the University of Wyoming, Omohundro was named head trainer at the College of Southern Utah in 1961. The following year, he returned to his alma mater, Wyoming, as assistant trainer where he remained until joining the Big Red in 1967.

He served as the Cardinals' assistant trainer for four seasons (1967-70) before being promoted to head trainer in 1971.

A native of Salt Lake City, Utah, Omohundro and his wife, Martha, have two sons, Johnny (13) and Jimmy (11), and a daughter, Neely Anne (6).

JIM SHEARER

Assistant Trainer

Jim Shearer enters his 14th year with the Cardinals, assisting in all aspects of the training and medical staff.

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a degree in physical education, Shearer worked in Gillette, Wyo. as the city's assistant recreation director and head trainer at Gillette High School. He returned to Wyoming as a graduate assistant trainer in 1973-74 before coming to St. Louis in 1974.

Born in Worland, Wyo., Shearer and his wife, Nelma, have a son, Christopher (10), and daughter, Sarah (6).

JEFF HERNDON

Assistant Trainer

Now in his second season with the Cardinals, Jeff Herndon joined the club prior to the 1986 campaign.

Jeff earned his master's degree in physical education from Syracuse in 1985 after completing undergraduate work at the University of Missouri, where he was awarded the Dr. James M. Baker Award for the Most Industrious and Improved Clinician in Evaluation and Ability.

A native of Boone County, Mo., the 26-year-old Herndon first worked with the Cardinals during the 1984 and 1985 preseason training camps. He then handled the athletic trainer duties at Tascosa High School in Amarillo, Texas for one year before returning to St. Last last season.

Jeff is single and resides in St. Louis.

SIMMONS RETIRES AFTER 21 YEARS AS CARDINALS' EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Bill Simmons, equipment manager of the St. Louis Football Cardinals for the past 21 years, retired this past Spring.

The senior member of the Big Red's staff, Simmons was recently named MacGregor Sporting Goods' NFL Equipment Manager of the Year in a vote by his peers.

A veteran of both World War II and the Korean War, Simmons earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from Northeast Missouri State between stints in the service. Prior to his days with the Cardinals, he taught at Ferguson High School in St. Louis where he coached and officiated high school sports for 18 years.

Born in Kansas City, Mo., Simmons and his wife, Katie, have five children and seven grandchildren. Their eldest son, Dan, has followed in his father's footsteps, now entering his 15th year as equipment manager for the New Orleans Saints.

MARK AHLEMEIER

Equipment Manager

Previously serving as the club's assistant equipment manager for six years, Mark Ahlemeier was named to the equipment manager position in April.

He succeeds Bill Simmons, who retired after 21 years of service.

Ahlemeier, 29, was born in St. Charles, Mo. and grew up in nearby Woodson Terrace. He attended Ritenour High School and Florissant Valley College in St. Louis.

An avid golfer and sports enthusiast, Ahlemeier now lives in Bridgeton, Mo. with his wife Patti. They are expecting their first child this August.

ED NULL

Asst. Equipment Manager

Ed Null begins his first season as the club's assistant equipment manager.

A native of Maryland Heights, Mo., the 23-year-old Null was first exposed to professional sports with the St. Louis Baseball Cardinals. He served as the Cardinals' bat boy from 1981-83 and handled equipment chores for the visiting baseball team's locker room in Busch Stadium the past four seasons. He also assisted the Houston Astros' equipment department during spring training in Florida this year.

Null attended Pattonville High School in Maryland Heights, where he advanced to sectional competition as a high jumper in track and field.

Had two-week cast removed in April and was destined for fine season until untimely Achilles injury in opener ... 1985: Started all 16 games at right guard, stepping in when veteran Terry Stieve announced retirement in training camp ... 1984: Honed skills on special teams during first 14 games ... Received first extensive playing time vs. N.Y. Giants (12/9) when Stieve left game early with injury ... First NFL start came next week vs. Washington (12/16) in season finale ... GAMES (STARTS): 1984-15(1), 1985-16(16), 1986-1(1), TOTALS-32(18) ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Consensus All-American at Texas and Lombardi Award finalist in 1983 ... Selected Academic All-American with 3.24 GPA in petroleum engineering ... Captain of 1983 Longhorn squad ... As Texas senior, was recipient of American Spirit Award, presented to Southwest Conference player who combines athletic ability, scholarship, leadership and citizenship qualities ... Born in Houston and attended Memorial High ... Worked in off-season as petroleum engineer for Tenneco ... Popular public speaker and involved with several local charities including Alton, Ill. Cancer Society, Jewish Hospital, the Veterans Administration, and Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital ... Also active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

PRO CAREER: Has more than capably filled the role at right guard since veteran Terry Stieve retired after starting at the position for five seasons ... Ability to rehabilitate from surgery will be key to 1987 performance ... Combines all tools necessary to be a standout offensive lineman ... 1986: Sustained

The Duda File

Defensive Tackle Maryland 5th Year
 Ht: 6-3 Wt: 279 Born: 2/4/61
 Acquisition: Fourth round (A) choice, 1983

- ✓ Started all 16 games at left tackle in 1985
- ✓ Set Maryland single-season record with 13 sacks in 1982
- ✓ Only starting duty in 1986 came in first three games when regular nose tackle David Galloway was sidelined with pulled groin

PRO CAREER: Was relegated to reserve NT role behind David Galloway as Cardinals switched to 3-4 defense in 1986 ... Previously started all 16 games in 1985 at defensive tackle with career-best 58 tackles and five and one-half sacks ... Saw only spot duty as rookie in 1983, then used off-season to dramatically improve physique prior to '84 campaign ... Should regain starting spot in '87 alongside Galloway in 4-3 alignment ... 1986: Started first six games at nose tackle for David Galloway (groin) despite being bothered by hyper-extended elbow ... Finished season with 12 tackles in 14 game appearances ... Sustained foot injury vs. Buffalo (9/21) and sat out games vs. Dallas (9/29) and Washington (10/19) ... Chalked up five tackles in each of first two starting roles despite playing unfamiliar nose tackle position ... 1985: Started all 16 games at defensive tackle ... Finished with flourish, posting 30 tackles and three and one-half sacks over last six games, tops among St. Louis defensive linemen in that span ... Season-end totals of 58 tackles and five and one-half sacks — both career-bests — surpassed previous two-year totals combined ... Made remarkable comeback after undergoing arthroscopic knee surgery for torn cartilage in right knee in training camp (8/9) and was ready in time to start season opener ... 1984: Started first six games at defensive tackle before calf injury, then dislocated knee cap, abbreviated what would have been outstanding year ... Turned heads when he arrived at mini-camp in vastly-improved shape from '83 rookie season ... Though he played in just eight games, amassed 23 tackles and four sacks ... 1983: Stepped into starting lineup six times as rookie DT, finishing season with 27 tackles and one sack ... First NFL start came against Dallas (9/11) ... Then proceeded to start next five games ... Saw first action in season opener vs. New Orleans (9/4) when starter Galloway was injured, and in only few series racked up four tackles and one fumble recovery ... Missed two games with injury to left foot ... GAMES (STARTS): 1983—14(6), 1984—8(6), 1985—16(16), 1986—14(6), TOTALS—52(34) ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: First team All-ACC pick and honorable mention All-American at Maryland ... Set Terrapin record with 13 sacks in 1982 ... Played in East-West Shrine Game ... Born in Wilkes Barre, Pa. ... Attended Plymouth High ... He and wife, Ruth Ann, reside in Plymouth in off-season.

The Ferrell File

- ✓ Averages 4.58 yards per carry for career (220 att., 1,008 yds.), one of best figures by fullback in NFL
- ✓ His 56 receptions last year were most by fullback in Cardinal history and third most among 1986 NFC running backs (behind Roger Craig's 81 and Herschel Walker's 76)
- ✓ One of nine children, he had to quit high school during senior year after father died. He worked in tobacco fields of southern Virginia to support family.
- ✓ Enrolled in Job Corps and completed his high school education through Graduate Equivalent Program. He resumed football in Job Corps, earning scholarship to East Tennessee State.

PRO CAREER: Blossomed into one of NFC's premier fullbacks last year, displaying big-league ability as runner, blocker and receiver ... His blocking has been instrumental in rushing success of Stump

Mitchell and Ottis Anderson in recent years ... Also has corralled 107 passes in past three years ... Paid dues on special teams in first two NFL campaigns, then landed starting fullback role in 1984 ... 1986: Barrelled for 548 yards on 124 carries and snared 56 passes for 434 yards and three touchdowns in paramount season of Cardinal career ... Both rushing and receiving totals ranked second on club ... Caught five or more passes five times last year, including six-grab efforts in both Dallas tilts ... His 548 rushing yards surpassed his previous four years combined (460) ... In Monday night clash (9/29) vs. Cowboys, he rushed for 40 yards on five carries and yanked down six passes for 36 yards ... Twice reached career high-water rushing marks with 71 yards vs. both Buffalo (9/21, 11 carries) and Tampa Bay (12/21, 9 carries) ... Unleashed pair of game-breaking plays at Tampa Bay (10/12), ripping off 25-yard run and 30-yard touchdown catch in 30-19 victory ... 1985: Started nine of first 11 games before going on Injured Reserve (11/25) ... Achieved then career-best rushing totals of 45 attempts for 204 yards and 4.5 average ... Evidence of big play ability was that 11 of his 25 pass receptions were parlayed into gains of 10 or more yards, with six going for 15 yards or more ... Scored game-winning TD with eight-yard run in 21-10 Monday Night win over Dallas (11/4) ... Instrumental in paving way for Stump Mitchell's first 1,000-yard rushing season ... 1984: Earned starting spot at fullback and answered bell with 4.5 yard-per-carry average and 26 receptions ... Provided lead blocks for All-Pro Ottis Anderson's fifth 1,000-yard rushing season ... Caught his first TD pass vs. New Orleans (9/23) on 11-yard aerial from Neil Lomax ... Played in all 16 games, extending his streak of consecutive games to 41 ... 1983: Paid his dues on special teams with kickoff return and coverage units ... Carried ball just seven times, but had 7.6 average ... Scored first pro TD on 11-yard run in 44-14 win over San Diego (11/20) ... Returned 13 kickoffs for 19.8 average as deep man alongside Stump Mitchell ... Registered 16 tackles on kick cover units ... Played in all 16 games ... 1982: Saw duty only on special teams ... Returned four kickoffs for 22.0 average ... Best game as return man vs. Dallas (9/19) with three kickoff returns for 25.3 average ... Twice named Special Teams Player of the Game, vs. Atlanta (11/28) and again vs. Chicago (12/19) ... Understudy to starter Wayne Morris, one of finest blocking backs in NFL and key to Anderson's early success ... GAMES (STARTS): 1982-9(0), 1983-16(0), 1984-16(9), 1985-11(9), 1986-

16(15), TOTALS—68(33) ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Three-year starter at East Tennessee State after suffering knee injury as freshman ... Led team in rushing each of last three seasons ... Finished collegiate career with 5.3 rushing average and 21 touchdowns ... Outstanding football player and wrestler at Halifax County High in South Boston, Va ... Has degree in Physical Education from ETSU ... Resides in St. Louis.

With a package of running, receiving, and blocking talents considered a true commodity in the NFL today, Earl Ferrell provides the Cardinals with an added dimension on offense.

Defensive End      Florida      6th Year
Ht: 6-3      Wt: 279      Born: 2/16/59
Acquisition: Second round choice, 1982

- ✓ Has bagged 28½ sacks in only 56 career starts
- ✓ Was club's fourth-leading tackler (70) last year despite missing first two games with groin injury
- ✓ Led Tampa Bay Area (Hillsborough County) in slam dunks while playing prep basketball, directing Brandon High to its first Western Conference basketball championship in school history

PRO CAREER: His size-speed ratio suggests he's on verge of NFL stardom ... Has churned out 53.8 tackles and 6.6 sacks per year since becoming starting tackle in 1983 ... A cornerstone of Cardinals' front line, he commanded double-team attention in 1986 ... Will be shifted from nose tackle to end in Stallings' new 4-3 defense this Fall, thus giving him free reign to harass the quarterback ... Stockpiled 12 sacks as defensive tackle in 1983 ... 1986:

Club's fourth-leading tackler with 70 stops, the top total among Cardinal defensive linemen and his personal career best ... Also collected five sacks, two fumble recoveries and one blocked PAT last year ... Notched five or more tackles eight times, a remarkable number from his congested nose tackle region ... Recorded eight unassisted tackles and one sack vs. Dallas (9/29) in first start of season ... Pumped out seven tackles and one sack at Tampa Bay (10/12) and nailed five tackles and caused Phil Simms to fumble vs. N.Y. Giants (10/5) ... Also netted five tackles and recovered two fumbles — both in first half — against K.C. (11/23) ... 1985: Piled up 56 tackles from his right defensive tackle spot in first 16-game season as starter ... Registered nine tackles in season opener vs. Green Bay (9/8) ... Recovered fumble that led to score in 41-27 win over Cincinnati the next week ... Batted down pair of passes vs. N.Y. Giants (9/22) ... Registered two sacks vs. Philadelphia (11/17) ... Rolled up eight tackles and sack in season finale vs. Washington (12/21) ... 1984: Despite missing two contests with dislocated toe, still led all St. Louis defensive linemen with career-best 53 tackles ... Also registered five sacks ... Was integral part of Cardinals' rushing defense that yielded just 11 TDs on ground ... Notched seven tackles and two sacks vs. Dallas (11/11), then added seven more stops the next week vs. N.Y. Giants ... 1983: Stamped his mark as a force on defensive line with 12 sacks, an amazing total for interior lineman ... Highlighted fine season when, with Cardinals nursing three-point lead late in game, nailed QB Dave Krieg for safety in 33-28 win over Seattle (11/13) ... It was his third sack of afternoon ... Played in all 16 games with 13 starting assignments, including last 12 contests ... Rolled up seven stops and one sack vs. Kansas City (10/2) and pair of sacks in Cardinals' 44-14 win over San Diego (11/20) ... Picked off game-saving interception with 1:18 left to play in 10-6 win over N.Y. Giants (12/4) ... Climaxed season with two sacks in 31-7 win over Philadelphia (12/18) as St. Louis totalled 11 QB traps in finale ... 1982: Finished strong after suffering dislocated elbow in second preseason game ... His Injured Reserve status, combined with players' strike, slowed comeback ... Played in final five games and earned starting spot in playoff game vs. Green Bay (1/8/83) ... Recorded two sacks in season finale vs. Washington (1/2/83) ... Defensive line coach Floyd Peters convinced him he could still be good football player, drummed him into good physical shape, and cultivated his skills that paid off by season's end ... GAMES

The Green File

- ✓ In past four years, he's averaged 62 receptions, 998 yards and 9.3 TDs per season
- ✓ Had his club single-season reception mark broken by J.T. Smith (80) last year
- ✓ His 1,555 receiving yards in 1984 was highest total by NFL player in 19 years, and still remains fourth most yards in League history behind Charley Hennigan's 1,746 (1961), Lance Alworth's 1,602 (1965) and Jerry Rice's 1,570 (1986).
- ✓ During sensational '84 season, he averaged 45.3 yards per TD catch
- ✓ Began NFL career as defensive back from 1979-81, making history in '81 vs. Washington (9/20/81) when he became first player to catch TD pass and intercept pass in same game since Redskins' Eddie Sutton in 1957

PRO CAREER: Although his receiving statistics have tapered off slightly the past two seasons because of injuries, "Jet Stream" remains one of NFL's most feared deep threats at wide receiver... Corrective surgery on left ankle last September improved his mobility by late season... Strung together back-to-back 78-catch seasons in 1983 and 1984, earning Pro Bowl honors both years... Rattled off 1,227 yards and 14 touchdowns in '83, with an encore of 1,555 yards and 12 TDs in '84... In eight seasons, he's hunted down 314 passes for 5,169 yards and 44 touchdowns... His 44 TD catches rank No. 3 in Cardinal career annals behind Sonny Randle (60) and Mel Gray (45)... Began his career at defensive back, but became solely a wide receiver in 1982... Tied NFL record with 106-yard kickoff return for touchdown vs. Dallas (10/21/79) as rookie... 1986: Underwent surgery 9/22 to remove calcium deposit in left ankle and remained on club's Injured Reserve list until Dallas contest (10/24)... Despite missing five games, he flagged down 42 passes for 517 yards and six touchdowns... Caught TD pass in four of last five contests of season, including 48-yard strike from Neil Lomax with 2:39 left in regulation at Philadelphia (12/7) in eventual 10-10 overtime deadlock... His six catches for 100 yards in Eagles' clash marked 12th time he's pierced century yardage mark in his career... Did not catch a pass vs. New Orleans (11/16), ending 74-game streak in which he'd caught at least one pass... 1985: Started just 13 games when severe toe injury, then an equally-debilitating ankle sprain in Week Eight, placed a damper on his productivity... Still managed to catch 50 passes for 693 yards and five TDs... Once his injuries were behind him, finished final four games with 18 receptions, including seven vs. Dallas (11/28)... Season-best 94 yards on six catches in 43-28 win vs. Green Bay (9/29), including insurance points on 37-yard TD grab... Sat out games in Weeks Nine to 11 with injury... 1984: Stamped his mark as one of most feared deep threats in NFL with 78 pass receptions for 1,555 yards and 12 TDs enroute to second straight Pro Bowl berth... Total of 78 catches tied own club mark set year before... Eclipsed 100-yard receiving mark six times and caught five or more passes nine times... Caught fourth quarter TD passes of 47 and 56 yards in 34-33 comeback win over Indianapolis (9/16)... Pulled down third period scoring strikes of 70 and 45 yards in 31-20 win over Dallas (10/7)... Piled up two more TDs on aerials of 38 and 83 yards in 26-24 comeback win over Washington (10/21)... In season finale, rang up career-best 196 yards on eight catches, including TD grabs of 75 and 18 yards vs. Redskins (12/16) ... 1983: In only his first 16-game season as a wide receiver, blossomed as Cardinals' all-time single-season record-holder with 78 receptions for 1,227 yards ... Caught five or more passes 10 times ... Eye-opening four TD catches in 33-28 win over Seattle (11/13) ... Caught 26-yard game-winner with only 29 seconds left vs. Philadelphia (9/25) in 14-10 victory ... His 14 TD catches were most by Cardinal since Sonny Randle set club record of 16 in 1960 ... Season-best 133 yards on eight grabs vs. Washington (11/6), and four vs. Seattle (11/13), totalling seven in three-game stretch ... Over final eight games of season, caught 35 passes for 629 yards, 17.9 average and impressive 10 TDs ... 1982: First season as full-time wide receiver ... Ranked second on team with 32 pass receptions ... Enjoyed career-best 10 receptions with 170 yards vs. Dallas (9/19) ... Caught dramatic game-winning and playoff-clinching TD on eight-yard reception with :27 showing on clock in 24-21 win over N.Y. Giants (12/26) ... Ran ball six times on reverses or fake punts ... Caught nine passes for 113 yards in playoff loss to Green Bay (1/8/83) ... Also made five tackles on special teams coverage units ... 1981: Turned in one of most unique, inimitable seasons in recent NFL history as first authentic two-way performer in League in more than two decades ... Began year as fifth DB, but with injuries depleting receiving corps, was inserted as surprise wide receiver vs. Dallas (9/13) and promptly caught 60-yard TD pass on first play ... Made headlines next week vs. Redskins when he became first player to catch TD pass and intercept pass in same game since Washington's Eddie Sutton performed feat in 1957 ... In that game, he was on field for total of 99 plays (offense, defense, four special teams) and caught four passes for 115 yards, including 58-yard TD on first play of game ... For year, caught and intercepted a pass in same game three times (vs. Washington 9/20, Buffalo 11/15, and New Orleans 12/6) ... Hauled in game-winner in final minute with 33-yard TD reception in 27-20 victory over New England (11/29) ... Against New Orleans (12/6), caught one pass for 28 yards, returned an interception for 29 yards, broke up another pass, and sealed game away in fourth quarter with 44-yard TD run from up-back position in punt formation in 30-3 St. Louis win ... His 21.4 yards-per-catch average led NFC ... Attended both offense and defense meetings and was tutored after hours by coaching staff ... Made 15 tackles on defense with 11 passes defended ... Also returned eight kickoffs for 16.9 average ... 1980: Started six games at strong safety, finishing season with 38 tackles, one sack and one interception with nine passes defended ... First career interception came against Dallas (11/16) ... Earned game MVP honors for 57-yard punt return for TD in fourth quarter in 24-23 win over Detroit (12/7) ... Returned 16 punts for 10.5 average, good for third in NFC and fourth in League ... Also returned 32 kickoffs for 745 yards and 23.3 average, which ranked sixth in NFL and fourth in conference ... Missed final game of season with knee strain ... 1979: Burst onto NFL scene with 106-yard kickoff return for TD vs. Dallas (10/21) ... The return tied NFL record held by Al Carmichael of Green Bay (10/7/56) and Nolan Smith of Kansas City (12/17/67) ... Ranked second in NFC and fourth in League with 24.6 return average on 41 returns for 1,007 yards ... Returned nine of those kickoffs for more than 30 yards ... On defense, recorded 33 tackles, two passes defended and recovered two fumbles ... Also returned eight punts for 42 yards ... Named to The Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly All-NFC team as return specialist ... GAMES (STARTS): 1979-16(0), 1980-15(6), 1981-16(2), 1982-9(9), 1983-16(16), 1984-16(16), 1985-13(13), 1986-11(10), TOTALS-112(72) ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Versatile NAIA All-American in 1978 at Henderson State in Arkansas ... nine career fumble recoveries, including four in 1981, tying him for third-best season effort in St. Louis record books ... 1986: Spent entire season on Injured Reserve after undergoing arthroscopic surgery on his right knee the day after '85 season ended ... Passed his physical in training camp and was cleared for practice, but second 'scope in preseason placed him on IR list for year ... 1985: Battled through troublesome right knee all season but still managed 58 tackles — his best total in four years ... His seven sacks led team but was significantly down from previous season totals ... Opened with four sacks in first three games ... His 54 solo stops led all St. Louis defensive linemen ... Nagging right knee flared up in Week 15, prompting him to miss first starting assignment in 66 games ... Injuries to other linemen, however, necessitated him playing in reserve role for final two contests ... 1984: Cruised to fine season with 14 sacks and 41 tackles ... Chalked up at least one sack in 14 of 16 games ... Ranked No. 3 among NFC sack leaders, giving him 30 in 32 games from 1983-84, and since 1981 a total of 50 in 57 contests ... Recorded two sacks in 34-14 win over Philadelphia (10/28), then racked Eagles for two more in return meeting (11/25), a 17-16 St. Louis victory ... 1983: Sailed to his best statistical season with 42 tackles and 16 sacks ... Piled up three sacks and forced fumble vs. Dallas (9/11) ... Registered pair of sacks vs. Minnesota (10/30) in 41-31 St. Louis win, and two more in 44-14 victory over San Diego (11/20) ... Stormed to four and one-half sacks as St. Louis totalled 11 on day in 31-7 win over Philadelphia (12/18) in season finale ... 1982: Became more consistent as team switched to 4-3 alignment ... Led Cardinals with seven and one-half sacks and three fumble recoveries ... Recorded one and one-half sacks and recovered two fumbles vs. New Orleans (9/12), then two more sacks and fumble recovery vs. San Francisco (11/21) ... Also put two traps on board in 23-20 win over Philadelphia (12/5) ... Finished season with career total of 26 and one-half sacks in 23 starting assignments ... 1981: Steadily-improving play earned him starting spot at right end in Week Four after serving as designated pass rusher in first three games ... Led team with 12 and one-half sacks and four fumble recoveries ... His 60 tackles are still career-best ... Voted team's Defensive Lineman of Game on four occasions, more than any other player on team ... Rang up three sacks and forced fumble vs. New England (11/29) ... Recovered two fumbles in season finale vs. Philadelphia (12/20) ... 1980: Played in just 11

games during frustrating rookie season marred by injury ... Suffered concussion in season opener when he was struck in head by blocker's knee, missing the next four weeks ... Racked up four and one-half sacks in 35-24 win over Baltimore (11/22) as Cardinals tied NFL record with 12 sacks in game ... Shared team lead with six and one-half sacks ... Started just two games but saw ample playing time in passing situations ... Suffered broken thumb in Week 15 and sat out final game of season ... GAMES (STARTS): 1980-11(2), 1981-16(12), 1982-9(9), 1983-16(16), 1984-16(16), 1985-16(15), 1986-0(0), TOTALS-84(70) ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Unanimous All-American at Michigan and finalist for 1979 Outland and 1980 Lombardi Awards ... Two-year member of AP All-American Strength Team ... Played in three Rose Bowls, 1979 Gator Bowl and 1980 Hula Bowl ... Led Wolverine defense in tackles both junior and senior seasons ... All-star performer at Cass Tech in Detroit ... Worked summers with disadvantaged youths in inner city ... Has degree in Speech Communications ... Employed by Anheuser-Busch as Special Marketing Representative ... Wife, Marcia, graduated from New York University in 1984 with Law degree ... Resides with wife in Chesterfield, Mo. with twins, Brandon and Danielle (7/23/82) and daughter Jessica Carolyn (12/19/84).

The Lee File

- ✓ Despite missing final five games due to knee surgery, he was voted to 1986 NFL All-Rookie teams by Pro Football Writers of America and Pro Football Weekly
- ✓ Was fourth-highest drafted kicker in NFL history behind Charlie Gogolak (Washington, 1966), Steve Little (St. Louis, 1976) and Russell Erxleben (New Orleans, 1979)
- ✓ Father (Kyou Sahna) and mother (Okja) relocated four children from Seoul, South Korea to Downey, Calif.
- ✓ His first field goal attempt at Downey High practice as freshman was good from 50 yards
- ✓ As UCLA All-American, he converted 79 of 92 field goal attempts for NCAA-record .859 career percentage

PRO CAREER: Survived roller-coaster season that featured an early-season two-for-six field goal slump and late-season knee injury ... Underwent exploratory arthroscopic surgery on right knee 11/21 after being knocked into pileup following kickoff vs. New Orleans (11/16) ... No cartilage or ligament damage was found during surgery ... Prior to injury, Lee had gained momentum by converting six of his last seven field goal attempts ... Nailed eight of 13 FG tries and 14 of 17 PAT attempts for season ... Clicked on seven of nine field goals attempted inside 40 yards ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Two-time first team All-American at UCLA ... One of greatest kickers in college football history ... Consensus All-American as senior, concluding career as NCAA's No. 4 all-time scorer with 353 points ... Converted 85 of 100 field goals and 135 of 136 PATs for Bruins ... Born in Seoul, South Korea ... Korean name is Min Jong Lee ... Played against Japan, Taiwan and Hong Kong as member of Korean National Little League baseball team ... Attended Downey High in Southern California ... Donated $200 for each successful field goal to Hyland Convalescent Center, a St. Louis institution for chemical-dependency and psychiatric treatment of adults.

(91.2), Dave Kreig (84.1), Danny White (83.2), Ken Anderson (81.9) and Dan Fouts (80.9) ... Also is second youngest member (to Marino) of NFL's career top 20 ... Has completed 57.3 percent of career attempts with 92 touchdowns and 67 interceptions ... Stunned pro football world with unworldly performance in 1984, carving up foes for 4,614 yards and 28 touchdowns in completing 61.6 percent of his passes (345-of-560) ... His 28 TD passes tied club mark established by Charley Johnson in 1963, while his 19 consecutive games throwing a TD pass (1983-84), .616 completion percentage and 92.5 pass rating were club single-season standards ... Also set single-game Cardinal records for completions (37), yards (468) and completion percentage (.804) in 1984 season finale vs. Washington (12/16), a game in which he connected on 25 of 28 attempts for 314 yards in second half alone ... Established club attempts mark with 52 vs. both L.A. Rams (11/4) and Dallas (11/11) in '84 ... Concluded 1982 season with 385-yard passing display vs. Green Bay (1/8/83) in first-round playoff contest, the highest total ever by NFL quarterback in first post-season game ... Named to NFL All-Rookie Team in 1981, and earned team's MVP award in both '81 and '84 ... 1986: Handicapped by injuries to veteran wide receivers Pat Tilley and Roy Green, he battled through adversity to post NFC's fifth-best pass rating (73.6) ... Threaded 240 of 421 attempts (57.0%) for 2,583 yards with 13 TDs and 11 interceptions ... With Cards in 2-7 tailspin, he was benched for two games (vs. San Francisco, New Orleans) in favor of backup Cliff Stoudt ... However, he returned to starting lineup with a flourish, completing 96 of 151 passes (.636 pct.) for 1,031 yards and six TDs in final five games ... Was club's offensive captain ... Passed for third-highest yardage total (390) in Cardinal history vs. Philadelphia (12/7), with his completions (30) and attempts (48) in that game the most ever by Eagle opponent ... Also connected on 74.1 percent (20-27) of passes for 153 yards at N.Y. Giants (12/14) ... Launched three TD passes vs. Kansas City (11/23) in return as starter ... Also rifled two scoring strikes in completing 17 of 27 for 228 yards in 30-19 win at Tampa Bay (10/12) ... When Stoudt got brief starting nod, it ended Lomax's streak of 52 consecutive starts ... 1985: A 5-11 record placed a damper on year of great expectations, though Neil achieved some respectable statistics ... His 471 pass attempts, 266 completions, 3,214 yards, 56.5 completion percentage and 2.5 interception percentage all ranked among top three single-season efforts in Cardinals' history ... Led Cardinals to 3-1 record to open season with eight

The Lomax File

- ✓ With 80.7 passing efficiency rating, he's perched in 11th place on NFL's All-Time Quarterback Ratings
- ✓ Ranks No. 2 behind Jim Hart on club's career passing charts in completions (1,288), attempts (2,247) and yards (15,989)
- ✓ His 4,614 passing yards in 1984 were fifth highest in League history behind only Dan Marino (5,084 in '84 and 4,746 in '86) and Dan Fouts (4,802 in '81 and 4,715 in '80)
- ✓ Earned Pro Bowl notice in 1984
- ✓ Has thrown only five interceptions in last 272 attempts, finishing 1986 campaign with second-best interception percentage (2.9) among NFC regulars

PRO CAREER: Supple-armed quarterback continues to ring up estimable passing numbers in St. Louis ... With 80.7 career passing rating, only six active NFL passers rank higher: Dan Marino (95.2), Joe Montana touchdown passes in those first four games ... Was hindered by temporary losses of both Ottis Anderson and Roy Green due to injuries during season ... Trailing 24-17 in season opener vs. Cleveland (9/8) with 38 seconds remaining, directed team 63 yards in four plays, capped by five-yard touchdown pass to Pat Tilley that set stage for 27-24 overtime win ... Connected for three scoring strikes in 43-28 victory over Green Bay (9/29) ... Tossed two touchdowns apiece in 41-27 win over Cincinnati (9/5), 21-10 Monday Night win over Dallas (11/4), 28-16 triumph over New Orleans (12/6), and in season finale vs. Washington (12/16) ... Was relieved by Scott Brunner in third quarter of blowout losses to Philadelphia (10/13) and N.Y. Giants (11/24) ... Tied personal-worst mark with four interceptions vs. Washington (10/7) ... Sustained more sacks (61) than in any of his previous four seasons, with his longest completion just 47 yards ... 1984: Generated one of the most illustrious campaigns in Cardinals' history, if not among finest in NFL annals in his first full 16-game season ... Earned Pro Bowl honors with 4,616 yards passing, a total surpassed only by Dan Fouts (1980-81) and Dan Marino (1984-86) in history of League ... Eclipsed 350+ yard passing mark four times and completed over 60% of his passes on nine occasions ... Completed 20 or more passes in 10 different games ... 1983: Set then single-season club marks for completion percentage (59.0) and NFL pass rating (92.0) despite missing more than three games with shoulder injury ... Completed 209 of 354 pass attempts for 2,636 yards and 24 TDs, the most scoring aeriels by Cardinals' quarterback since 1963 ... Completed over 70% of his passes on three occasions and threw TD pass in last eight straight games as St. Louis posted 7-2-1 mark in final 10 games ... Highlighted season with personal-best four touchdown passes to Roy Green in 33-28 win over Seattle (11/13), a game in which he connected on 21 of 27 attempts ... Sustained shoulder injury in opener vs. New Orleans (9/4) in first half, sat out rest of game, then returned the following week against San Francisco, only to re-injure shoulder ... Subsequently sat out next two contests before returning in Game Six ... 1982: Turned in steady performance as starter for all nine games ... His 205 pass attempts, 109 completions and six TD passes — albeit in a shortened season — were fewer than any starting QB in League ... At one stretch threw 100 consecutive passes without an interception (Games Two to Seven) ... Drove club 70 yards in 38 seconds in playoff-clinching win over N.Y. Giants (12/26), capped by eight-yard aerial to Pat Tilley with :27 left for 24-21 comeback win ... Scrambled for 119 yards on 28 tries and one touchdown on season ... Completed 32 of 51 pass attempts for 385 yards in playoff loss to Green Bay (1/8/83) ... 1981: Selected to four NFL All-Rookie teams after being named starter for final six games of season ... Engineered wins in four of those contests ... Posted stats of 119 completions in 236 attempts for 1,575 yards ... Received NFL baptism sooner than expected when Jim Hart suffered bruised knee in first quarter of season opener vs. Miami (9/6) ... First start came the next week vs. Dallas when he threw for 295 yards and one TD ... Connected on 20 of 28 attempts (71.4%) for 280 yards in come-from-behind 27-20 victory over New England (11/29), including 33-yard scoring toss to Roy Green with 42 seconds left in game ... Next week he hit on 13 of 19 attempts (68.4%) in 30-3 win over New Orleans, and at one point completed 10 straight passes, just two short of Jim Hart's club mark of 12 ... Also rushed for 104 yards on 19 attempts with two touchdowns on season ... Was given nickname "The Gateway Gunner" ... GAMES (STARTS): 1981-14(6), 1982-9(9), 1983-13(13), 1984-16(16), 1985-16(16), 1986-14(14), TOTALS-82(74) ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: One of most prolific passers in NCAA history during career at Portland State ... At one time held 90 Division I-AA records ... Is first quarterback to throw for more than four TDs in one quarter when he connected for seven vs. Delaware State in 1980 ... That season threw for more than 4,000 yards with 37 TD passes ... Finished seventh in Heisman Trophy balloting as senior ... Attended Lake Oswego High in Oregon ... Earned degree in Communications from Portland State in 1981 ... Very active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Professional Athletes Outreach ... Works in off-season as marketing representative for Nike, Inc. in Portland ... Participated in football clinic in Milan, Italy in 1984 ... He and wife, Laurie, own home in Creve Coeur with son, Nicholas Ryan (9/11/86).

PRO CAREER: Gifted athlete who's finally found a home at cornerback... Had been shuttled between defensive back and wide receiver during past three seasons... First switched from DB to wide receiver at 1984 training camp, remaining there through beginning of '85 season... Was moved back to cornerback when Lionel Washington fractured his ankle vs. Cincinnati (9/15/85), starting final 14 games... Has caught six passes for 77 yards in his career, including five for 61 yards in '84... Utilized at both wide receiver and cornerback in early 1986 season due to injury status of Roy Green and Pat Tilley... 1986: His club-leading four interceptions came in pairs vs. Kansas City (11/23) and Tampa Bay (12/21)... Pocketed 33 tackles and 13 pass defenses during campaign... Started last five games despite wearing harness for dislocated left shoulder sustained vs. Washington (10/21)... Underwent successful off-season surgery to repair shoulder... Made spectacular diving play to knock down sure TD catch that would have tied game in fourth quarter of 30-19 win at Tampa Bay (10/12)... Also produced game-saving tackle of Gregg Garrity on two-yard line as time expired in Cardinal 13-10 win vs. Philadelphia (11/2)... 1985: Entered training camp as wide receiver and remained there through start of season... Summoned back to defense in Week Three when Lionel Washington broke ankle vs. Cincinnati (9/15)... Started final 14 games of season at left cornerback, registering 42 tackles and two interceptions with team-best 17 passes defended ... Racked up seven tackles, four passes defended and a forced fumble in 21-10 Monday Night win over Dallas (11/4) ... Caught one pass for 16 yards vs. Cincinnati, the last pass he's snared since his conversion to defense ... 1984: Converted to wide receiver, a move prompted by his fine speed, good hands and fact that team was relatively deep at corner position ... Caught five passes in limited action as third receiver in passing situations ... Reeled in two passes for 31 yards vs. Buffalo (9/9) ... Suffered separated shoulder vs. New Orleans (9/23) that forced him on Injured Reserve for four weeks ... Upon his return to lineup, a sprained thumb hampered his effectiveness as he caught just three passes the rest of the season ... Also registered five tackles on special teams duty ... 1983: Was thrust into starting role for first five games of season when starter Jeff Griffin sustained preseason injury ... Answered bell with 51 tackles, three interceptions and 11 passes defended ... Chalked up six tackles and one pass defended in first NFL start (New Orleans 9/14) ... Proceeded to start next four games at left corner, then became 'nickel-back' when Griffin returned to lineup ... Sealed 10-6 win over N.Y. Giants (12/4) with interception late in game ... Pulled in deflected pass and raced 34 yards for touchdown in preseason game vs. Kansas City (8/20) ... GAMES (STARTS): 1983-16(5), 1984-12(0), 1985-16(14), 1986-15(9), TOTALS-59(28) ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Three-year starter at Baylor ... Was highly-rated in college, breaking up career-high nine passes in 1982 ... Totalled four interceptions in 1980 ... Was school's starting centerfielder on baseball team, tying school record with 19 stolen bases in 1981 ... An accomplished guitarist and cellist ... Completed work on marketing degree from Baylor during off-season ... Born in Bryan, Texas and attended Brazo Sport High in Freeport ... Three-sport star in basketball, baseball and football ... Resides in St. Louis.

FREDDIE JOE NUNN 53

Linebacker Mississippi 3rd Year
 Ht: 6-4 Wt: 255 Born: 4/9/62
 Acquisition: First round choice, 1985

The Nunn File

- ✓ Earned 1985 UPI All-Rookie Team honors after stacking up 84 tackles, three sacks and two fumble recoveries in 16 starts
- ✓ Teammate of Cardinal quarterback Kent Austin at Ole Miss
- ✓ Returns this year to his college position of defensive end, where he was first team All-American at Mississippi
- ✓ Gained 1,246 yards and scored 20 touchdowns as senior running back at Nanih Waiya High in Noxubee, Miss.

PRO CAREER: Will be transformed into defensive end in Stallings' new 4-3 defense this fall ... Not a foreign position for Nunn, who played DE as All-American at Mississippi ... Possesses exceptional speed for his size ... Has beefed up from 228 to 255 pounds in off-season ... 1986: Showed flashes of brilliance at outside linebacker last year ... His 48 tackles ranked seventh on club, while his seven sacks were second most to Al Baker's 10 ... Erupted for two first-half sacks in both Philadelphia (12/7) and New Orleans (11/16) games ... Also notched two pass defenses and a fumble recovery at N.Y. Giants (12/14) ... 1985: Started first preseason game after just four days in training camp ... Started all 16 games ... Breezed to team-leading 38 tackles after first five games ... Rolled up six or more stops on 10 occasions ... Strung together three consecutive weeks with sacks: vs. Tampa Bay (10/10), Philadelphia (10/17), N.Y. Giants (10/24) ... Stacked up eight tackles in NFL debut in season-opening 27-24 overtime win vs. Cleveland (9/9) ... GAMES (STARTS): 1985—16(16), 1986—16(16), TOTALS—32(32) ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: First-team All-American at Mississippi, first team All-Southeastern Conference, and three-time SEC Defensive Player of the Week as senior ... Played in Senior bowl and was Defensive MVP in Hula Bowl ... Born in Noxubee, Miss ... Lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track ... Resides in St. Louis with wife, Vickie.

TOOTIE ROBBINS 63

Offensive Tackle East Carolina 6th Year
 Ht: 6-5 Wt: 302 Born: 6/2/58
 Acquisition: Fourth round choice, 1982

Played in 12 games and started last five at right tackle ... Twisted ankle prevented play Weeks 9-10 ... Playing time and performance level increased as he rounded into shape through latter part of season ... 1985: Recurrent hamstring injury kept him out of four games but started 11 of 12 ... Answered bell in first eight contests but hamstring pull in Week Nine limited playing time rest of season ... 1984: Started all 16 games to finish with streak of 25 consecutive starts over two seasons ... Improved physique from previous two years and paid off in perhaps best year as pro ... 1983: Shook off nagging hamstring problems to start last nine games and regain form of fine rookie season ... Progressed well throughout year and began to realize potential ... 1982: ... One of biggest bonuses of '82 draft ... Started all nine contests and joined fellow-rookie tackle Luis Sharpe with All-Rookie mention by Pro Football Weekly, Football Digest, and PFWA ... Impressive showing in training camp prompted veteran Dan Dierdorf's move to center ... Shared game MVP honors with Sharpe vs. Atlanta (11/28) when St. Louis rolled up 203 yards rushing in 23-20 win ... GAMES (STARTS): 1982-9(9), 1983-13(11), 1984-16(16), 1985-12(11), 1986-13(5), TOTALS-63(52) ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Earned second-team All-America honors as senior at East Carolina, highest national recognition by football player in school history ... Played in Blue-Gray and Japan Bowl games after senior season ... Won team blocking award after junior year ... Two-way starter at Bertie County High in native Windsor, NC ... James "Tootie" Robbins was all-state and All-America offensive tackle during prep career ... Active in United Way ... He and wife, Shaneeta, reside in Florissant, Mo.

The Robbins File

- ✓ Worked on parents' farm as youngster in Merry Hill, N.C., where they grew corn, soybeans, tobacco and peanuts
- ✓ After starting 47 of 50 games since his 1982 rookie season, he answered the opening bell only five times in 1986
- ✓ Earned second team All-America honors as senior at East Carolina, the highest national recognition by a football player in school history

PRO CAREER: Presents perhaps the most imposing figure on team at 6-5 and 302 pounds ... Enjoyed outstanding 1982 season with several All-Rookie honors, but hamstring problems since that time have prevented him from realizing true potential ... When able to go at 100%, can dominate his man and complement Luis Sharpe to give Cardinals impressive set of bookend tackles ... 1986: Re-signed with club after start of season and activated 9/12 ...

- ✓ Voted Pro Bowl alternate in both 1983 and 1984
- ✓ Enters 1987 with consecutive starting streak of 73 games — longest current string on Cardinal club
- ✓ Born in Havana, Cuba. At age of six, he and family moved to Detroit where father worked in auto industry
- ✓ Fluent in two languages, he occasionally does interviews with Spanish radio stations in other NFL cities

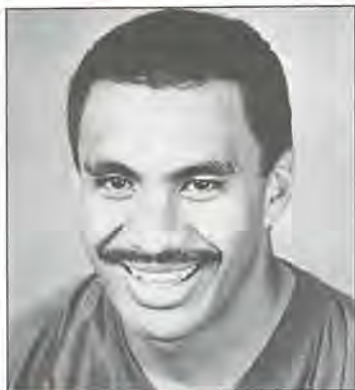

Offensive Tackle      UCLA      6th Year
 Ht: 6-4      Wt: 260      Born: 6/16/60
 Acquisition: Signed as free agent, 9/1/85
 First round choice, 1982

PRO CAREER: Thoroughbred lineman who's regarded as one of NFL's better pass blockers ... Has great combination of strength, foot quickness and intelligence ... Earned NFL All-Rookie Team and team Co-MVP (with Benny Perrin) awards in 1982 ... Played 44 games during 16-month stretch from 1984-85 due to signing with USFL ... After 16 games in 1984, he signed with USFL's Memphis Showboats in Spring 1985 ... Played 12 games in Memphis, then returned to Cardinals in time to once again start all 16 NFL contests in Fall 1985 ... 1986: With full off-season of rest, he regained past form in 1986 ... Consistently warded off the better defensive linemen in NFL ... Extended his consecutive starting streak to 73 games at season's end, longest current string on Cardinal club ... 1985: After playing all 16 games with Cardinals in '84, signed with Memphis of USFL in Spring 1985 ... Played in 12 games with Showboats, then returned to start all 16 games with St. Louis in 1985 ... Mental and physical exhaustion took its toll as he failed to perform with same toughness and finesse exhibited in previous seasons ... Ran string of consecutive starts to 57 ... 1984: 16-game starter and Pro Bowl alternate in outstanding season ... Stellar play at left tackle was important factor in Cardinals' high-powered passing attack that saw St. Louis yield just 49 sacks ... Repelled some of finest pass rushers in League ... Near-flawless protection of Pro Bowl QB Neil Lomax led NFC with club-record 4,614 yards passing ... 1983: Tabbed Pro Bowl alternate in just second season at left tackle ... 1982: Cardinals' No. 1 pick in '82 NFL draft ... Lived up to all expectations with outstanding year ... Selected to All-Rookie squads by Pro Football Weekly, Pro Football Digest, and the PFWA along with fellow-rookie tackle Tootie Robbins ... Shared game MVP honors with Robbins in 23-20 win over Atlanta (11/28) ... First tackle selected in draft, 16th player selected overall ... GAMES (STARTS): 1982-9(9), 1983-16(16), 1984-16(16), 1985-16(16), 1986-16(16), TOTALS-73(73) ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: All-American at UCLA ... Played guard and center positions as three-year starter ... Received Bruins' Rookie of the Year award as freshman ... Was second-team All-Pac-10 as sophomore ... Earned honorable mention All-American as junior ... Named team's MVP as senior and appeared in 1981 Hula and Olympia Gold Bowl ... Attended Detroit's Southwestern High where he played both football and basketball ... Earned Academic All-American honors ... Has degree in political science and aspires to become involved in politics to help minorities ... He and wife, Kathi, reside in St. Louis with daughter, Leah (2/1/84).

Additional Statistics: 1 rush for 11 yards, 1983.

Halfback      BYU      2nd Year
Ht: 5-9      Wt: 191      Born: 8/29/62
Acquisition: 10th round (A) choice, 1986

- ✓ Setting numerous club punt return records, he was selected to Pro Bowl, earned All-Pro Second Team honors by Associated Press, and All-NFC and All-NFL Rookie accolades from Pro Football Weekly last year
- ✓ Established team single-season punt return marks for attempts (43) and yardage (522), surpassing Stump Mitchell's 1981 standards
- ✓ Claimed NFC punt return crown (12.1) and ranked third among Conference kickoff returners (22.9)
- ✓ Became only fifth player in NFL history to return two punts for TDs (71 and 60 yards) in one game, a 21-17 win vs. Tampa Bay (12/21/86)
- ✓ Born in Nyku' Alofa, Tonga

PRO CAREER: Developed into Cardinals' Cinderella story of 1986 ... Regarded as long shot to even survive training camp, he shocked the experts by setting numerous club punt return records and being selected as NFC's special teams' Pro Bowl entry ... Although he lost two fumbles in 1987 Pro Bowl, he dazzled the Aloha Stadium crowd with 29-yard return ... For the afternoon, he returned seven punts for 73 yards in Honolulu while returning two kickoffs for 35 yards ... Ripped off punt returns of 71, 61 and 60 yards during season — the three longest returns by Cardinal player since Lee Nelson's 77-yarder at Chicago in 1979 ... Also uncorked 91-yard TD punt return vs. New England (Hall of Fame Game) and 60-yarder vs. Chicago in preseason action ... Tied NFL record by returning two punts for touchdowns vs. Tampa Bay (12/23/86), with both scores coming in second quarter ... Only four other players have returned two punts for TDs in one game: Detroit's Jack Christiansen (twice in 1951), N.Y. Titans' Dick Christy (1961), Denver's Rick Upchurch (1976) and L.A. Rams' LeRoy Irvin (1981) ... His 145 punt return yards in that Tampa Bay game also set club single-game record, surpassing Chuck Latourette's 143 in 1968 ... Earned NFL Special Teams Player of the Week for his season-closing effort ... His punt return average (12.1) is best by Cardinal since Terry Metcalf's 12.4 average in 1975 ... At halfback, his first NFL run from scrimmage traveled 23 yards at Tampa Bay (10/12) ... GAMES (STARTS): 1986—16(0), TOTALS—16(0) ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Caught 36 passes for 526 yards and 14.6 average with two TDs as senior at BYU ... Also rushed for 6.6 average-per-carry in 1985 with 383 yards on 58 attempts for Cougars ... Posted career 6.7 rushing average and 11 TDs ... All-purpose performer for nationally-ranked Brigham Young squad ... Had 83-yard punt return for TD vs. SMU in 1980 Holiday Bowl ... Honorable mention All-Western Athletic Conference as junior with 25.1 kickoff return average for No. 7 ranking nationally ... Served on Mormon mission in South Dakota in 1982-83 before returning to school in '84 ... He and wife, Keala, reside in St. Louis with their son, Landon (12/12/85).

The Smith File

Wide Receiver North Texas St. 10th Year
 Ht: 6-2 Wt: 185 Born: 10/29/55
 Acquisition: Free Agent, 9/17/85

- ✓ Caught only 25 passes with Kansas City from 1982-84, but has responded with 123 receptions in last two seasons with St. Louis
- ✓ Set Cardinal single-season reception record with 80 catches for 1,014 yards and six TDs last year, achieving milestone despite suffering through such physical ailments as strained back, pulled hamstring, sprained ankle and flu (twice)
- ✓ Born in Leonard, Texas, located just seven miles from Gene Stallings' hometown of Paris
- ✓ Although his special team days may be over, he ranks No. 4 in NFL career punt return yardage with 2,611 — trailing only Billy "White Shoes" Johnson (3,036), Rick Upchurch (3,008) and Mike Fuller (2,660)
- ✓ Earned Pro Bowl spot with NFL-high 14.5 punt return average in 1980 with Chiefs

PRO CAREER: Received new lease on his football life with Cardinals in 1985 when he signed as free agent ... Logged seven previous NFL seasons with Kansas City ... Utilized primarily as return specialist by Chiefs from 1982-84 ... Besides ranking fourth in NFL career punt return yardage list (2,611), he's lodged in fifth place for NFL career punt returns (246) behind Emlen Tunnell (258), Alvin Hammond (253), Fuller (252) and Johnson (250) ... Signed with Chiefs in 1978 as free agent after being released by Redskins midway through season ... Led AFC with 10.6 punt return average in 1979, including 88-yarder vs. Oakland Raiders (9/23) ... Still holds Kansas City's marks for career and single season in punt returns (220/58 in 1979) and punt return yards (2,322/612 in '79) ... Ranked second in NFC in punt returns with 10.9 average with Cardinals in 1985 ... Has caught 290 passes for 3,868 yards, 15 TDs in career that spans nine seasons and 119 games ... Also opens 1987 season having caught at least one pass in 29 consecutive contests ... 1986: Last year was crowning moment of Smith's NFL career, as he rose above his "journeyman" label to set Cardinals' single-season reception record with 80 catches for 1,014 yards and six TDs ... The 80 receptions eclipsed teammate Roy Green's 78-catch seasons of 1983 and 1984 ... His 80 also ranked third among NFC receivers last year, while his yardage tied Sonny Randle (1963) for sixth place on club's all-time single season list ... Finished with surge, corraling 46 passes for 611 yards and five TDs in his last seven contests including three 100-plus-yard games ... Hunted down career-best 10 catches for 154 yards and two touchdowns at San Francisco (11/9), with seven of those receptions going for first downs ... Also clawed 10 passes for 131 yards at Philadelphia (12/7), eight for 106 vs. New Orleans (11/16) and five for 65 and two TDs vs. his former team, Kansas City (11/23) ... Caught four passes or more in 14 of Cardinals' 16 games last season ... His consistency was remarkable, considering he played with several injuries and was double-teamed while Roy Green was sidelined for five games ... 1985: Joined club in Week Three and made immediate impact ... Caught 43 passes for 481 yards — best totals since All-Pro 1981 season with Kansas City Chiefs ... Stepped in at both wide receiver (for injured Roy Green and Pat Tilley) Tilley) and as punt returner (with Stump Mitchell starting in backfield in place of injured Ottis Anderson) ... In first of five starting roles, snared six passes for 86 yards and winning TD grab in 21-10 Monday Night win over Dallas (11/4) ... Nabbed six passes for 81 yards vs. Washington (10/7) ... Hauled in three for 62 yards following week vs. Philadelphia (10/4) and four for 70 yards in 28-16 win over New Orleans (12/8) ... Excelled on special teams with 26 punt returns for 10.9 average — second in NFC and best Cardinal average since 12.4 mark by Terry Metcalf in 1975 ... 1984: Finished season as Chiefs' leading punt and kickoff return man with 20.6 kickoff return average and 8.5 mark on punt returns ... Returned kickoffs full time for first time in career ... Caught eight passes for 69 yards as fifth wide receiver ... Led team with five grabs for 49 yards vs. Seattle (11/4) ... Played in 15 games, missing season finale with separated shoulder ... 1983: Ranked No. 9 in AFC with 8.1 average on 26 punt returns ... Caught seven passes for 55 yards on season ... Played in nine games with one start, missing first six contests with preseason knee injury ... 1982: Played in just five games with two starts ... Pulled hamstring early in season and bruised sciatic nerve later in campaign ... In only contest when completely healthy, hauled in six passes for 101 yards vs. New Orleans (11/21) ... Returned just three punts for 8.7 average ... 1981: Enjoyed outstanding season with 63 catches for 852 yards and 10.6 punt return average on 50 returns ... That reception mark was fourth-best in Kansas City history ... Single-game career best nine receptions for 140 yards vs. San Diego (9/20) ... Started first 15 games until rib injury forced him to miss part of season finale ... Led AFC in punt returns and yards as Pro Bowl alternate ... 1980: Sailed to All-Pro status with League-leading 14.5 punt return average ... 40 returns for 581 yards boosted him to status as Chiefs' all-time leading punt returner in only second full year with team ... Started all 16 games at wide receiver as well with 46 grabs for 655 yards and two TDs ... 1979: Began assault on Chiefs' record book with 58 punt returns for 612 yards and 10.6 average with one touchdown ... Authored team-record 88-yard return vs. Oakland Raiders (9/23) and club mark of 141 total punt return yards that day ... Also pulled in 33 passes for 444 yards and three touchdowns ... Started 13 games ... 1978: Signed with Chiefs as free agent after being released by Washington ... Signed with Redskins as free agent, playing in six games prior to release ... Returned four punts for 8.3 average with Redskins ... GAMES (STARTS): *1978-12(0), *1979-16(13), *1980-16(16), *1981-16(15), *1982-5(3), *1983-9(1), *1984-15(0), 1985-14(5), 1986-16(16), TOTALS-119(69), CARDS TOTALS-30(21) ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Enjoyed fine career at North Texas State as standout wide receiver and kick returner . . . Born in Leonard, Texas and attended Big Spring High . . . Works as instructor at St. Louis' Downtown YMCA during off-season . . . Resides in St. Louis.

Guard/Tackle      LSU      3rd Year
Ht: 6-2      Wt: 262      Born: 1/1/63
Acquisition: Third round choice, 1985

- ✓ Earned UPI All-Rookie honors at right tackle in 1985
- ✓ May be moved to guard in 1987, where his dimensions (6-2, 262) are better suited
- ✓ Dropped from 295 to 260 pounds in 1984, when he won several All-America honors at LSU

PRO CAREER: Has filled holes at both tackle and guard in two seasons with Cardinals ... Will get hard look for starting berth at both spots this season ... Named All-Rookie at tackle in 1985, then performed solidly as guard as well in '86 ... Intensity and hard work compensate for lack of textbook size at tackle position ... 1986: Started all five preseason games and first 11 games of regular season at right tackle before ankle injury limited him to only two starts in last five contests ... Started last two games of season at right guard when Joe Bostic was sidelined with injury ... Saw playing time mainly on field goal and PAT units last part of season ... Worked in practice at guard spot periodically ... 1985: Received starting nod five of last eight contests at right tackle for Tootie Robbins (hamstring) ... In NFL debut vs. Dallas (11/4), faced national TV audience, home sellout, and Ed "Too Tall" Jones ... Survived challenge in 21-10 Cardinals' win on Monday Night ... Earned UPI All-Rookie honors though playing time was limited ... GAMES (STARTS): 1985-14(5), 1986-15(13), TOTALS-29(18) ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Played in Hula Bowl ... Received scattered All-America mention as freshman, withstood adversity in 1982 and '83, then became 'blue-chip' success story as senior in 1984 ... Born in New York City, attended A.L. Brown High in hometown of Kannapolis, N.C. ... Exceptional prep athlete in football and wrestling ... He and wife, Felicia, reside in St. Louis with son, Quentin (9/27/85).

*Detroit Lions

Quarterback Youngstown State 9th Year
Ht: 6-4 Wt: 215 Born: 3/27/55
Acquisition: Trade with Pittsburgh, 9/2/86

- ✓ Spent first 56 NFL games on Pittsburgh's active roster without appearing in regular-season contest, still a League record
- ✓ Was member of two Steeler Super Bowl champions (1978 and 1979)
- ✓ Ranked second behind Jim Kelly (98.1) on USFL's career passing efficiency chart, completing 478 of 810 attempts (.590 pct.) for 6,479 yards, 60 TDs, 26 interceptions and 95.9 rating

PRO CAREER: Provides insurance policy at quarterback for Cardinals ... Regarded as serious contender for starting job held by Neil Lomax ... Joined St. Louis via trade with Pittsburgh for undisclosed 1988 draft choice ... Was originally Steelers' fifth-round selection in 1977 draft ... Clicked on 51.7 percent of his passes (197-of-381) for 2,553 yards, 12 TDs and 21 interceptions in his only NFL season as starter in 1983, when he directed Steelers to AFC Central Division title and 10-6 record ... Also rushed for 479 yards and four TDs on 77 carries that '83 campaign ... Signed with USFL's Birmingham Stallions January, 1984 ... Led Stallions to consecutive divisional flags (1984-85) during his two seasons in USFL ... Drilled 266 of 444 passes (.599 pct.) for 3,358 yards, 34 TDs and 19 interceptions to claim USFL's 1985 Eastern Conference passing crown with 91.2 rating ... Set USFL single season record for fewest interceptions in 1984 with only seven ... Was USFL's top rushing quarterback in 1984 with 440 yards on 68 carries (6.5 avg.), including nine TDs ... His combined career statistics with Pittsburgh and St. Louis read: 35 games, 296-570, 51.9 percent, 3,759 yards, 17 TDs and 35 interceptions ... 1986: In limited role, connected on 52 of 91 passes (57.1%) for 542 yards, three touchdowns and seven interceptions ... Temporarily won starting job with inspired play in 13-10 win over Philadelphia (11/2), when he sprang off bench to engineer pair of fourth-quarter scoring drives including 14-yard TD strike to Roy Green ... Started vs. San Francisco and New Orleans the following two weeks, but Cardinals dropped both decisions and Lomax returned to top QB spot 11/23 vs. Kansas City ... Orchestrated 17-play, 86-yard scoring march in New Orleans game ... Moved offense effectively at times vs. 49ers but threw three costly second-half interceptions — one of which was returned 78 yards for TD ... Also victimized by three interceptions vs. Saints, although two came on desperation plays to end both halves ... 1985: 91.2 pass rating ranked second only to Jim Kelly in USFL as he led Birmingham to Eastern Conference title ... Launched five touchdown passes vs. Los Angeles (5/19) ... Guided Stallions to 13-5 mark ... Hit on 13 of 26 passes for 156 yards in 22-20 win over Kelly and Houston Gamblers in quarter-final playoffs ... 1984: Led team to 14-4 mark and Southern Division flag with 212 completions in 366 attempts for 3,121 yards and 26 touchdowns ... 101.6 pass rating second-best in league annals ... Threaded 13 of 27 passes for 147 yards and rushed for two touchdowns in 36-17 win over Tampa Bay in opening round of playoffs ... Injured shoulder later in game and was hampered following week in 20-10 loss to Philadelphia ... Completed 14 straight passes vs. Arizona Wranglers ... 1983: Led Pittsburgh to AFC Central title and 10-6 record ... Connected on 10 of 20 attempts for 187 yards and one TD in playoff loss to L.A. Raiders (1/1/84) ... Also rushed nine times for 50 yards in game ... 1982: Played in just three games with season stats of 14 completions in 35 attempts for 154 yards and five interceptions ... Started preseason game vs. New England (8/19) and completed 17 of 26 passes for 165 yards in 24-20 comeback win ... Rushed 11 times for 28 yards in regular season ... 1981: Saw action in only two games ... Missed golden opportunity late in year when broken bone in arm prevented him from taking over when Terry Bradshaw was sidelined for season at Oakland (12/7) ... Spent final six weeks of season on Injured Reserve ... 1980: Had only career start vs. Cleveland (10/20) with impressive 310 yards passing on 18 completions in 37 attempts ... Finished season completing 32 of 60 passes for 493 yards and two TDs ... 1977-79: Did not play in first three pro seasons, a string of 56 consecutive games which ended when relieved Bradshaw in second half vs. Chicago (9/28/80) ... Fifth round pick in 1977 draft and sixth quarterback chosen overall ... Served as team's player representative through 1983 ... GAMES ($STARTS): *1977-0(0), *1978-0(0), *1979-0(0), *1980-6(1), *1981-2(0), *1982-6(0), *1983-16(16), 1984—, 1985—, 1986-5(2), TOTALS-35(19), CARDS TOTALS-5(2) ... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Record-setting quarterback who broke virtually all of Ron Jaworski's records at Youngstown State as team captain and MVP ... Native of Oberlin, Ohio ... One of state's top golfers and four-year letterman in football at Oberlin High ... Involved in many charitable activities while in Birmingham with USFL, including the March of Dimes, The Childrens' Hospital, The King's Ranch and the Alabama Park and Recreation Board ... Named Stallions' "Man of the Year" by the Birmingham Jaycees ... Resides in St. Louis with wife, Laura, and daughter, Cydney Leigh (8/7/86).

 Ht: 6-0      Wt: 222      Born: 10/14/62
 Acquisition: Fourth round choice, 1985

PRO CAREER: Cardinals' dynamite special teams player... His brilliant play on kick coverage units did not go unnoticed last Fall, as he earned Pro Bowl honors in only his second pro season... Often is first player down field to force returns to one side or to hold up ball carrier momentarily... As fullback, he's only rushed for 83 career yards on 32 attempts as short-yardage specialist and vicious blocker... 1986: Although credited with only three tackles all season, he earned Pro Bowl notice by serving as club's "wedge-buster" and by springing loose Vai Sikahema with key blocks on kickoff and punt return units... Served as 1986 special teams captain for Cardinals... In fullback spot duty, he rushed for 19 yards on eight carries and snared two passes for 32 yards, including 28-yard pickup on swing pass at Dallas (10/26)... 1985: Left mark each week as fine special teams player... Credited with just two tackles but was true force on kickoff coverage units... Carried ball 24 times from fullback spot for 64 yards... Started only game vs. L.A. Rams (12/15)... Caught two passes for 18 yards... Returned 13 kickoffs for 18.0 average... GAMES (STARTS): 1985-16(1), 1986-16(1), TOTALS-32(2)... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Produced career totals of 1,328 yards rushing and 11 TDs at West Virginia despite serving primarily as blocking back... Mountaineers' leading rusher both junior and senior seasons... Turned fake punt into 67-yard TD in 1983 vs. Boston College... Born in Blaisdel, N.Y.... Attended Frontier Central High in Hamburg, N.Y.... Attained All-America honors as tailback... Construction currently underway for gymnasium he will own and operate with brother in Orchard Park appropriately named "Wolfley's Gym"... He and wife, Kathy, reside in St. Louis with daughter, Ashley Anne (12/21/83) and son, Connor (10/29/85).

Free Safety Michigan State 3rd Year
 Ht: 6-1 Wt: 182 Born: 7/18/63
 Acquisition: 12th round choice, 1985

1985: Started 10 games for Benny Perrin (knee) at free safety and served notice that a 12th round draft choice can play in NFL... Racked up 92 tackles, six passes defended, and led all St. Louis defensive backs with three interceptions... Fumble recovery in season opener led to Cardinals' first score in 27-24 win vs. Cleveland (9/8) and added nine tackles in first pro start... Picked off two interceptions that led to scores in 28-16 victory over New Orleans (12/8)... Racked up six or more stops on nine occasions... GAMES (STARTS): 1985-16(10), 1986-16(13), TOTALS-32(23)... COLLEGE/PERSONAL: Two-year starter at cornerback for Spartans... Intercepted six passes in collegiate career... Blocked four punts in first two seasons, including two vs. Minnesota that led to Michigan State touchdowns... Finished with 18 career passes defended — third highest total ever by MSU defensive back... Born in Flint, Michigan... All-state free safety at Beecher High and track and basketball star at same school that produced N.Y. Giants' linebacker Carl Banks... College teammate of Cardinals' Anthony Bell... Has degree in communications from MSU... Resides in St. Louis.

The Young File

- ✓ Chosen 325th of 336 players in 1985 NFL Draft
- ✓ Named to UPI's All-Rookie Team in 1985
- ✓ Childhood friend of New York Giants linebacker Carl Banks, attending elementary school, high school and Michigan State together

PRO CAREER: Despite being drafted late in 1985, he has emerged as legitimate front-line performer for Cards... A surprisingly-stiff hitter for his size, he's racked up 152 tackles in two pro campaigns... In his first NFL start, cashed in nine tackles and one fumble recovery in 27-24 win over Cleveland (9/8/85)... 1986: Although missing three games with a deep thigh bruise, he was Cardinals' third-leading tackler with 72 stops... Also garnered six pass defenses... Reeled off 10 tackles at Philadelphia (12/7)... Suffered thigh bruise vs. Washington (10/21) after starting the club's first eight games...

The Football Cardinals, a charter member of the National Football League, boast the distinction of being the oldest continuously run professional football franchise in the nation.

The Cardinals have called St. Louis their home for the past 27 years, having relocated from Chicago in 1960.

Reflecting the rich tradition of the franchise, 12 members of the Cardinals have been enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They are Charles Bidwill, Guy Chamberlin, Jimmy Conzelman, Paddy Driscoll, Walt Kiesling, Curley Lambeau, Dick "Night Train" Lane, Ollie Matson, Ernie Nevers, Jim Thorpe, Charley Trippi and Larry Wilson. Wilson was the most recent selection in 1978.

Founded by the late Chris O'Brien in 1898, the team began as a group which gathered to play football on Chicago's south side. The team gained longstanding identification when O'Brien, finding a bargain, bought used jerseys from the University of Chicago.

The jerseys were faded maroon in color, prompting O'Brien to declare: "That's not maroon, it's Cardinal red!" And with that statement, the club's permanent nickname was born.

With their popularity growing in the Chicago area, the Cardinals eventually became one of 11 charter members of the American Professional Football League (forerunner of the NFL) in 1920. Under new head coach Norman Barry, the Cardinals outdistanced a field of 20 teams to win their first NFL championship in 1925.

A Chicago dentist, Dr. David Jones, purchased the team in 1929. In his very first year of ownership, he coaxed running back Nevers out of retirement to become player-coach. Still in his prime, the 26-year-old Nevers scored 40 points on six touchdowns and four extra points in an historic 40-6 win over the Bears on Thanksgiving Day in 1929. After guiding the Cardinals to a 16-14-3 record in three seasons, the legendary Nevers retired as both coach and player in 1932.

Nevers' departure also marked the arrival of a new club owner. Charles W. Bidwill, Sr., a vice president of the Chicago Bears, purchased the Cardinals for Jones' asking price of $50,000. Bidwill divested himself of his Bears' holdings, as a new Cardinals' era began.

However, the team sorely missed Nevers' magic on the field. The Cardinals endured difficult years in the 1930's and early 1940's before success was finally realized in 1947. Coached by Jim Conzelman and featuring a "dream backfield" of Paul Christman, Marshall Goldberg, Pat Harder and Charley Trippi, the Cardinals stormed to the Western Division title and a 28-21 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the NFL Championship Game that year.

But the 1947 championship season was bittersweet for the Cardinals' organization, as the April death of Bidwill deprived the owner of witnessing the club's first NFL crown in 22 years. With his passing, Bidwill's widow, Violet, assumed control of the franchise.

Upon Mrs. Bidwill's death 15 years later, control moved to sons Charles W. Bidwill, Jr. and William V. Bidwill.

In 1972, William Bidwill and his family gained sole ownership, with William becoming managing general partner. On July 1, 1979, incorporation of the company was accomplished with Bidwill continuing as chief executive officer.

After 14 years in the city, the Cardinals brought their first championship to St. Louis in 1974. The Big Red captured the NFC Eastern Division flag under head coach Don Coryell and advanced to the playoffs with a 10-4 record. However, the Cardinals lost to the Minnesota Vikings, 30-14, in their first playoff appearance since 1948.

Again in 1975, Coryell provided St. Louis with a division title but another playoff loss, this time to the Rams in Los Angeles, 35-23.

The Cardinals next appeared in the playoffs in 1982, when coach Jim Hanifan's club lost a first-round game at Green Bay, 41-16. In 1984, an offensively explosive St. Louis team narrowly missed the playoffs — and the NFC East title — with a 9-7 record. However, the Cardinals stumbled to a 5-11 mark in 1985, prompting Hanifan's dismissal and the hiring of longtime Dallas Cowboys' assistant Gene Stallings as the team's new head coach.

Busch Stadium 40,347

Los Angeles 16 - St. Louis 10

Trailing 16-3 after three quarters, the Cardinals mounted a furious rally in the final minutes to come within an eyelash of victory. The Cardinals sliced the deficit to six points (16-10) with 9:25 left on an Ottis Anderson four-yard touchdown run, and then launched a 61-yard drive in the final 1:52 that ended on the Rams' one-yard line as time expired. HB Stump Mitchell — who accounted for 38 yards (3 rec., 34 yds./1 att., 3 yds.) during the final march — got the call with 18 seconds left from the L.A. four and came up one yard short as the gun sounded.

Scoring Summary

Atlanta 33 - St. Louis 13

The Cardinals trimmed the deficit to 17-13 at halftime, only to be buried by a 16-0 Falcons' avalanche in the fourth quarter. After playing on virtually even terms with Atlanta for 30 minutes, the Cards were out-distanced by whopping margins in yardage (198 to 78) and first downs (12 to 4) in the final half. HB Stump Mitchell carved out 65 yards and one TD on 17 carries in a losing cause, while WR Roy Green caught three passes for 66 yards including a 45-yard touchdown strike from Neil Lomax.

Buffalo 17 - St. Louis 10

In a study of futility, St. Louis lost a 17-10 decision at Buffalo despite winning the statistical battle in virtually all offensive categories. The Cards outgained the Bills by colossal margins in total yards (381-176), first downs (25-10), plays (74-42) and time of possession (37:14-22:46). But Buffalo forged ahead 17-3 with 12:53 remaining, then repelled a late St. Louis rally. The Cardinals marched 73 yards on four plays, culminated by a Neil Lomax 19-yard touchdown pass to Vai Sikahema which whittled the deficit to 17-10 with 58 seconds left. A successful outside kick followed but four straight Lomax incompletions halted the threat at the Buffalo 39-yard line with 30 seconds on the clock.

Dallas 31 - St. Louis 7

Clinging to a 10-7 lead midway through the third quarter, the Cowboys salted away their Monday night win by intercepting three Cardinals' passes and rattling off 21 unanswered points in the final half. Handcuffed by the absence of injured Pro Bowl wide receivers Roy Green and Pat Tilley, St. Louis converted only two of 14 third-down plays. QB Neil Lomax passed for a season-low 112 yards and was intercepted a career-high four times. In a nightmarish second half, Lomax completed only five of 15 for 25 yards with three interceptions.

N.Y. Giants 13 - St. Louis 6

The Cardinals wasted an impeccable defensive effort in losing 13-6 to the eventual Super Bowl champions. St. Louis' defense smothered the Giants in every conceivable way, limiting Bill Parcells' powerhouse to only 144 yards, eight first downs, a 23:15 time of possession, a 2-for-15 third-down conversion rate, and 2.8 yards per offensive play. The 144 yards were the fewest by a Cardinal opponent since the Giants mustered only 142 yards in a 10-6 St. Louis win at the Meadowlands in 1983.

St. Louis 30 - Tampa Bay 19

St. Louis, which had averaged a meager 9.2 points and 271.8 yards entering the game, unleashed a season-high 434 yards in total offense in halting a five-game losing skein. The Cardinals were propelled by a balanced attack that netted 221 yards rushing and 213 yards passing enroute to head coach Gene Stallings' first regular-season victory as a NFL head coach. HB Stump Mitchell, despite nursing a strained left knee, sprang loose for a season-high 126 yards on 20 carries including TD runs of three and 31 yards. In the wake of the Ottis Anderson trade to the New York Giants earlier in the week, the Cards' ground game flourished with a 6.0 yards-per-carry average against the Bucs (37-221).

Washington 28 - St. Louis 21

The Cardinals came frustratingly close to an upset victory at Washington. After spotting the division-leading Redskins a 21-0 first-half cushion, St. Louis rallied in dramatic fashion only to lose, 28-21, when a Cliff Stoudt completion to Chas Fox fell 11 yards short as time expired. After Washington was forced to punt on four downs, QB Neil Lomax drove the Card offense 53 yards in the final seven minutes. However, Lomax strained his Achilles tendon on an illegal procedure penalty with 0:07 left. Stoudt was summoned for the final play, a pass to Fox that failed to reach the end zone.

Dallas 37 - St. Louis 6

Stung by a 21-point Cowboys' scoring spree in the second quarter, the Cardinals plunged deeper into the NFC Eastern Division cellar. Despite the return of All-Pro WR Roy Green after a five-week absence, St. Louis was limited to a season-low 200 yards and 11 first downs. Meanwhile, Herschel Walker rushed for a NFL career-high 120 yards, as Dallas methodically chiseled out 445 yards in total offense.

St. Louis 13 - Philadelphia 10

The Cardinals, having scored only six points in their previous seven quarters, overcame a 10-0 fourth-quarter Eagles' lead with two touchdowns in the final five minutes of the contest. Backup QB Cliff Stoudt, summoned to replace starter Neil Lomax after halftime, engineered drives of 51 and 59 yards that resulted in scores by WR Roy Green (14-yard reception) and HB Stump Mitchell (one-yard run). Although Mitchell's go-ahead TD came with only 36 seconds left, St. Louis had to rely on CB Cedric Mack's game-saving tackle of Eagles' WR Gregg Garrity on the game's final play. Garrity raced 34 yards with a Ron Jaworski pass, stumbling to the Cardinals' two-yard line as time expired.

Joe Montana, who only eight weeks earlier had undergone back surgery, miraculously returned to the 49ers' lineup to complete 13 of 19 passes for 270 yards against the Cardinals, including touchdown passes of 45, 40 and 44 yards to WR Jerry Rice. Four turnovers — including three costly second-half interceptions — negated a St. Louis offense that chewed up 364 yards and 22 first downs during the afternoon.

New Orleans 16 - St. Louis 7

The Saints, leading 10-7 in the fourth quarter, salted away the game with Morten Andersen field goals of 28 and 30 yards in the final minutes. Despite claiming a statistical edge over New Orleans in yardage (282-258) and first downs (21-15), St. Louis skidded to its third loss in four weeks and 18th in the last 22 games dating back to 1985. However, the Cards' defense was impressive, stifling the Saints to 76 passing yards and a .437 completion percentage (7-for-16).

Fueled by touchdown drives of 77, 80 and 70 yards, the Cardinals zoomed to a 23-0 fourth-quarter lead against the heavily-favored Chiefs. St. Louis' defense—despite the electrifying play of NT David Galloway (five tackles, two fumble recoveries), DE Al Baker (five tackles, two sacks) and CB Cedric Mack (two interceptions, four pass defenses)—saw a potential shutout disintegrate in the game's final eight minutes when Kansas City scored two touchdowns.

Washington 20 - St. Louis 17

Max Zendejas' 27-yard field goal with four seconds left deflated the Cardinals' upset bid against the Redskins, as coach Gene Stallings' club saw its season record erode to 3-10. However, St. Louis did not bow easily, tying the score (17-17) on a vintage Neil Lomax-to-Roy Green 35-yard touchdown pass with 5:23 remaining. One bright note was the emergence of Cardinal rookie CB Carl Carter, who collected four tackles, three pass defenses and his first NFL interception.

St. Louis 10 - Philadelphia 10

Steamrolling the Eagles for a season-high 461 yards in total offense, St. Louis erased a 10-3 deficit with only 2:39 left when Neil Lomax launched a 48-yard touchdown pass to Roy Green. Yet, the tie was a disheartening one for the Cardinals, who misfired on field goals of 40 and 37 yards in the overtime period. Eric Schubert missed the 37-yard attempt with only nine seconds remaining in OT. Lomax carved up the Eagles for 390 yards and one touchdown on 30-of-48 passing. It was the most yards, completions and attempts by the Card QB since his career-high 468-yard performance in the 1984 regular-season finale at Washington.

15 N.Y. Giants 27 - St. Louis 7

St. Louis saw any hopes of escaping the NFC Eastern Division cellar dashed at Giants Stadium where it endured an old-fashioned woodshed thrashing from New York's newly-crowned divisional champions. Wilting under a Giants' pass rush that claimed nine sacks, the Cardinals were limited to a season-low 184 yards. Only an ad-lib 15-yard touchdown pass from HB Stump Mitchell to WR Roy Green with 6:37 left in the game kept the Cards from suffering the indignity of a shutout.

16 St. Louis 21 - Tampa Bay 17

The Cardinals, parlaying two electrifying Vai Sika-hema punt returns into a 21-17 victory over Tampa Bay, concluded the 1986 season with a 4-11-1 record. With Sika-hema tying a NFL record with two punt returns for touchdowns, the Cardinals went on a 21-point scoring binge in the second quarter to assume a commanding 21-7 halftime lead. Sika-hema uncorked TD returns of 71 and 60 yards during the period, as the Cards' 10th-round draft choice returned four punts for a club single-game record 145 yards.

PRESSBOX, LOCKERROOM DIRECTIONS

Media entering Busch Stadium for Football Cardinal games should enter through the advance ticket office doors on street level on the west side of the stadium. To get to the pressbox, take the elevator, located just inside the doors, to the fifth level.

The main football pressbox is located on the south side of the stadium behind the Cardinal bench. The auxiliary pressbox is on the fifth level, on the west side, adjacent to the elevator.

The pressbox lounge is located in the auxiliary box. Food and beverages are also served in the main box.

To reach the lockerrooms, take the elevator to the first level and turn right out of the elevator. To get to the visiting lockerroom, make a second right; to the home lockerroom, turn left.
